NIGHT EDITION LIQUOR LICENSES

115 Applications Filed in Police Board Office

The time for filing applications for liquor licenses expired at noon today. There were 115 applications made as against 120 last year. Of the whole number of applications filed there were 52 first and fourth class common victualler and retail dealers' applications, 11 hotels, six clubs, three fourth class wholesale, two first and fourth class common victualler and wholesale dealers and one brewery.

There were but six new applications for licenses, namely: Joseph H. Clark & Co., J. H. Kennedy & Co., John J. Brady & Co., George Cousoules & Co., John P. Hall & Co., and Regie Brothers.

The only two licensed dealers who did not apply this year were Henry J. Keyes at 511-515 Market street, and John J. Gallagher of the firm of John J. Gallagher & Co., at the corner of Lakeview avenue and Coburn street.

John P. Hall has applied for a license at the place now occupied by Gallagher & Co., while George Cousoules has applied for a license at the place conducted by Mr. Keyes.

The Joyce company this year applied for a first and fourth class common victualler and retail dealer's license and not a first and fourth class common victualler and wholesale dealer's license which it has at the present time.

As in years past, a good many of the applicants put off the filing of their papers until this morning and from the time of the opening of the office of the board of police this morning until 12 o'clock noon, Clerk John J. Flaherty, Jr., and Inspector Frank Fox of the liquor squad were kept busy by the applicants.

The following is a list of the applicants:

1st and 4th Class—Common Victualler and Retail Dealer.

Patrick Kelley and Thomas P. Kelley, P. Kelley & Co., 19-25-27 Davidson street.

JOHN E. REDMOND PHILADELPHIA STRIKE

Another Step Taken in Attempt to End Trouble

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—With the arrival here today of State Senator McNichol and William S. Vare, recorder of deeds of the county, the most potential leaders of the dominant political party in Philadelphia, it is expected that the movement to bring peace between the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company and its striking employees, Senator McNichol and Recorder Vare, as is their custom, went to Florida following the spring election on Feb. 15, several days before the strike began. Many appeals for help were sent to them in the south but whatever word they sent home was without effect. Now that they are home, however, developments are looked for. Sen. Penrose, it is said, may take a hand in peace negotiations.

Leading members of the republican organization are allied with certain powerful interests in the Rapid Transit company and the attitude Sen. McNichol will assume in the trouble is awaited with interest. Sen. McNichol is credited with having brought about the end of the carmen's strike last June.

Both branches of city council will meet in regular session late this afternoon and more resolutions urging arbitration and other peace methods are expected to be presented. It is believed that if Mayor Reubens had shown a desire to enter arbitration proceedings he would have been strongly backed up by council. The mayor has not changed his attitude, however, and reiterates he is only interested in maintaining the law.

Edward L. Under Stokes, the broker who procured the first meeting between the strike leaders and the car officials, is continuing his effort to secure some settlement of the difficulty. It is expected that he represents powerful financial interests.

The labor leaders are still at work trying to spread the general strike. President Greenwalt of the State Federation of Labor, said today that he has heard from several towns in the state that have voted to join the movement for a state-wide strike if the carmen's strike is not soon settled.

BOY WAS RUN OVER AND KILLED BY CAR

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—There was an absence of important developments yesterday in the strike situation here. The statement issued by the committee of 10 last night consists of a proclamation modeled after the Declaration of Independence in which the labor representatives proclaimed their intention of maintaining their fight on behalf of the striking carmen.

E. E. Greenwalt, president of the State Federation of Labor returned to this city late last night and he and a number of organizers from various sections of the state were in consultation with the local strike committee. Plans for the proposed state-wide strike were discussed.

The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co. reported 1225 cars in operation yesterday, the highest number since the beginning of the strike. This had been announced on the last day on which the strikers were unbroken.

Three year old Eugene Platt was run over and killed by a trolley car in front of his home last night. The trolleyman was roughly handled by a crowd which collected but was rescued by the police.

Learning that the labor leaders intended turning the proposed St. Patrick's day mass for the Ancient Order of Hibernians into a labor demonstration, Archbishop Ryan said last night that the service would be postponed until April 5. The labor leaders, however, say they will not change their plans and propose to hold a meeting today in Logan square which fronts not only the cathedral, but also the residence of State Senator James P. McNichol, Mr. McNichol who has been in Florida since before the strike began is expected home today.

HON. JOHN E. REDMOND

Under Whose Able Leadership Ireland Will Soon Win Home Rule

The Irish race today while venerating the memory of St. Patrick looks to John Redmond and the party of which he is the leader for the early achievement of legislative independence and, judging from his commanding position in the British parliament, his ability as a statesman, and his great generalship, the Irish nation in centering its hopes in his leadership will not be disappointed. Below we cite a statement of the present situation and one of many tributes paid to Redmond by distinctively pro-British organs, that have usually assailed everything Irish:

LONDON ESTIMATE OF JOHN E. REDMOND

Under the heading, "Men of the Moment," the Westminster Gazette says: "It has been said that no one can succeed in the house of commons who does not possess indomitable courage and perseverance. But more is needed than mere physical energy to cut a figure at Westminster. One must, above all, have the gift of speech and the power of impressing the assembly with force and character. For behind the spoken word, however brilliant or apt it may be, members look for the personality of the man shaping a policy to a definite end. They look also for breadth of view and high purpose in the leaders of parties, for a glimpse of that vision without which people, as the Psalmist says, must perish."

Mr. Redmond's speech in the house of commons may be taken as affording a test of these qualities which make for mastery in an independent assembly. His oratorical power is one of the most precious possessions of the house and his persistence, courage and energy in pursuit of a great ideal have long since given him that commanding position which belongs alone to men of character.

No one doubts that if he had chosen any other career—that if, for instance, he had kept at the bar—he would have been one of the leading advocates of the day. Had he entered politics as a member of either of the great parties he would have attained a position of prominence on the front bench. He might have well hoped some day to be prime minister of this country. But as a leader of the Irish party he can hope for no emoluments or rewards beyond the gratitude of his countrymen, and in politics gratitude is a varying quantity that may altogether disappear before the gust of popular passions.

The house, therefore, takes off its hat, so to speak, when it thinks of the leader of the Irish party and his refusal to accept any of those rewards which other men tumble over one another to win. For an enduring name and fame as a British statesman were undoubtedly within Mr. Redmond's grasp had he taken to the high road of politics. His own road is, of course, the highest road of all for a patriotic Irishman, but it is a road that few men would care to tread who have any thought for the front bench, or for the good things of the political world.

Members like to picture the leader of the Irish party in classic toga, a striking Mark Antony attitude. For he is one of the few men in the house who suggest a Roman senator. There is something almost imperial in his attitude as he sits in his corner seat, below the gangway with folded arms and knotted brows, as one may see him on an Irish night. He has a sense of humor, but he rarely, if ever, allows himself to make a joke in the house, although he is witty enough in conversation.

His strength as a parliamentarian lies in his just appreciation of the political situation. If opportunity and occasion are important in politics, he may be said to be a master in political science. For he knows when to play the waiting game and when to throw

MONSTER PARADE

Thousands of Irishmen Were in Line in New York

NEW YORK, March 17.—Irishmen of New York by tens of thousands joined today in carrying out enthusiastically the program arranged for one of the most elaborate celebrations in honor of Ireland's patron saint that the city has witnessed. The main feature of the day's program was a parade of 40,000 or more sons of Erin up Fifth avenue.

Despite the cloudy weather, the streets along the route of the parade were crowded from an early hour, the greatest throngs seeking the neighborhood of the stand in front of St. Patrick's cathedral, where the paraders passed in review before Archbishop Farley, other church dignitaries, representatives of the city government and notables in many walks of life. Each parader of the Hibernian order wore the regulation hat, dark clothes, white gloves and badge of the organization. The shamrock was in evidence everywhere. Tonight there will be numerous society celebrations and a fete in a Harlem park.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures All Spring Ailments.

Mrs. Marion Bruce, Cumberland, Me., writes: "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a great many years, and I think it the best blood medicine in the world. I take it both spring and fall. This last winter and spring I was in very poor health. I was weak and had lost all my appetite and I was all run down. As soon as I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla my strength came back and my appetite returned. I am now well, do my housework, and no longer have that tired feeling."

MINSTREL PERFORMANCE
The 20th Century Bachelor club of this city, the leading exponent of the time minstrelsy, will give a minstrel entertainment this evening in the town hall of North Chelmsford the proceeds of which will be for the benefit of St. John's parish. The popular soloists of the club have secured some of the latest and ancient Irish melodies. In addition to which some of the more popular sentimental strains will be given during the introductory overture.

OLD HIBERNIAN
Terrence Gray Member for 56 Years

Mr. Terrence Gray, father of James J. Gray, manager of the Lowell Baseball team, claims to be the oldest member of the A. O. H. in the United States. Mr. Gray is well known in this city, having resided here since 1873, and is one of the old standbys of St. Patrick's parish.

TERENCE GRAY

rick's parish. For years he and his family made their home in Salem street and "Terry," as his friends called him, was one of the oldest pillars of the church. He was born in Ireland and joined the Hibernians in that country. He was only 19 years of age at the time and he has retained his membership ever since, and now he is 75 years old. When he sailed for America he received a transfer card and was affiliated with Division 5 of New York city. After ten years' residence in the Metropolis he came to Lowell and, fortified with credentials from the New York Division, became a member of Division 1 in 1873. Mr. Gray relates many interesting stories of his early experiences in the Hibernians. He says he was never afflicted with an order that brought to him more interest and comfort than did the A. O. H. He speaks of the early days of the organization in a most interesting manner and tells of the incidents that came to the attention of the officers. Mr. Gray, though 75 years of age, has never been compelled to secure the services of a physician in his life. He is in perfect health and is happy with his family of children and grandchildren. In his home in Tolman avenue, Pawtucketville, his great pleasure is to talk and joke and relate stories of his early experiences in Lowell. He is a great storyteller and his talks of the early days of Lowell and some of the old-timers are listened to with the greatest attention. He is proud of his family of boys and girls, and he also has the greatest love for his grandchildren. To say that this feeling is reciprocated is needless, for Mr. Gray himself says that "no better children or grandchildren live than his."

"NO VOTE, NO TAX"
CHICAGO, March 17.—While thousands of Irish Americans participated in celebrations in honor of their patron saint today, the "no vote, no tax" association tried to win the hearts of Erin's sons and daughters. A women's band took its place in an automobile decorated with green and playing tunes dear to the sons of Ireland was driven about the city, while members of the association passed out placards reading as follows:

Saint Patrick
Drove the Snakes Out of Ireland
Let President Taft
Drive Taxation Out of America.
Ireland and Women Should Be Free.

SCENES ON DAYTONA BEACH, FLA., WHERE AUTOMOBILE CARNIVAL WILL BE HELD

DAYTONA, Fla., March 17.—Great preparations are being made here for the annual automobile carnival to be held on the sandy beach March 22, 23 and 24.

Judging by the number of cars and crack drivers entered, the meeting should result in one of the best ever held here. There will be four or five races of different classes of cars scheduled each day of the meet, and the Minneapolis, Sir Thomas Dewar, Gold Speed King (two miles a minute) and other rich trophies will be awarded winners of races. In the free-for-all events Barney Oldfield and his 200 horsepower Benz, Ben Kerscher with the Vanderbilt cup winning Darracq, David Bruce Brown and the 120 horsepower Benz and R. M. Bonds with a Stearns are among the entries. In addition to these, many other noted racing drivers are down to compete in the different events. George Robertson has entered the great Christie front drive car in the free-for-all events, and, while the car has too much speed for the circular tracks, it will probably even make the big Benz hustle to beat it on the straight-away course. As the beach is in better condition for racing this season than at any time since the modern juggernauts were first sent over the cement-like sand surface, many new world's records are expected.

very good schedule for the team this year, which includes games with some of the fastest teams in this vicinity. The schedule is as follows:

April 8—Kings Manual at Lowell.

April 13—Phillips-Exeter at Exeter.

April 16—Game pending.

April 19—Boston University at Lowell.

April 20—M. I. T. 1912, at Lowell.

April 23—Lowell High at Lowell.

April 27—Alumni at Lowell.

April 30—Worcester Academy at Lowell.

SIR E. H. SHACKLETON

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—While Great Britain and other European countries are preparing to pay fitting honor in the near future to Robert E. Peary, American discoverer of the North pole, this country will have an opportunity of the Antarctic explorer's lecture is of Lieut. Sir Ernest H. Shackleton, the Englishman who penetrated nearer to the South pole than any other man in the world's history. Sir Ernest is to lecture in New York city and elsewhere, and in Washington he is to receive from the hands of President Taft the gold medal of the National Geographic Society. The introducer of Shackleton to his New York audience in Carnegie hall on the night of March 23 is to be Peary himself. The subject of the Antarctic explorer's lecture is "Farthest South." Among the other honors to be paid to the explorer is the presentation of the medal of the American Geographical Society of this city. In his visit to America and Canada Shackleton will be accompanied by Lady Shackleton. He is 40 years old. On Jan. 9, 1909, he reached 88 degrees 22 minutes north, 110 miles from the South pole.

DIAMOND NOTES

The Athletic veterans have joined the "Colts" at Atlanta, after bolting out at Hot Springs, Va.
Pitcher Howard Cannitz has signed with Pittsburgh for 1910 and will join the team at West Baden today.
The New York Americans have bought Third Baseman Hallman from the Oakland club of the California State league.
Walter Johnson and his friend Hendricks, of whom Jimmy McAleer expects so much, will not join the Washingtons until about April 1.
Mike Mitchell threw up his hat when he learned that Clark Griffith was going to take him out of the sun field and place him at centre.
"Dummy" Taylor is athletic coach at the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Olathe, Kan. He has just signed to pitch for Buffalo. He has been in quarrelling for six weeks and was not permitted to mail his contract until after March 2.

BOXING GOSSIP

Porky Flynn has been matched to box Morris Harris in Brooklyn next Monday night.
The Armory A. A. will hold an open amateur boxing tournament April 1. The classes will be 135, 145, 160 and 175 pounds. Entries close with Eddie Walsh, March 30.
Owen Moran has been matched to box Abe Attell in New York, March 23.
Max Baker and Joe Ferguson will meet in New York tonight.
Ketchel has again signed to box Frank Klaus in Pittsburgh, March 23.
Patsy Kline and Willie Jones will meet in Baltimore next month.
Bill McKinnon, the Roxbury heavyweight, was badly hurt Monday afternoon in East Boston by a plank that fell 60 feet, hitting him on the back of the neck. It is feared that he will never be able to box again.
Battling Nelson purchased a $1250 diamond necklace in Chicago the other day, but he will not tell whom he is going to give it to.
Jimmy Dunn, the Newcastler, Pa. lightweight, who went into the game against the wishes of his parents, is now building them a house in Newcastle.
Harry Lewis will clean up about $25,000 in Paris, according to Al Kubiak, who has just returned from that city.

NO MORE "TIPPING"

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Long suffering Uncle Sam rebelled yesterday against the tipping system, and the itching palms of the waiters in the senate restaurant hereafter will not be eased by the cool touch of silver coin. The reform is because the waiters are now government employees, being paid out of the contingent fund of the senate. "This was found necessary because it has been almost impossible to find any one willing to take over and operate the restaurant, all who have had it declaring it to be a losing venture."

SUTTON BEATEN

Champion Defeated by Willie Hoppe

CHICAGO, March 17.—Willie Hoppe of New York last night won the 181 ball line billiard championship of the world by defeating George Sutton of Chicago, 500 to 228. Hoppe's average was 15.20-30, and Sutton's 7.25-29. Hoppe won the match in a riveting opening shot. Sutton made 26 at the outset and for the next six innings played a strong game. Hoppe was unable to control the balls until the seventh inning, when he made 29 by a succession of difficult plays. From the 12th inning on, Hoppe gradually increased his lead and when the 22nd inning was ended he had 326 to Sutton's 105.
Sutton apparently lost both stroke and judgment of distance, missing several easy draw shots and one cushion. Hoppe's game on the other hand improved with the exception of his 19th, 20th and 23rd trials.
Hoppe appeared to gain confidence as the match progressed. He had played a strong game at all times, making runs of 61 and 57.
Score by innings:
Hoppe—0, 3, 11, 14, 1, 29, 0, 37, 1, 25, 32, 30, 3, 14, 21, 1, 3, 10, 28, 61, 11, 34, 57, 1, 18, 45, 1, 18, 2-500. High runs 61, 57.
Sutton—2, 31, 15, 0, 23, 7, 22, 6, 0, 0, 2, 1, 0, 0, 8, 0, 3, 11, 28, 4, 5, 20, 3, 2, 1, 12, 3-228. High runs, 31, 28, 23. Average, 7.25-29.

HOSPITAL GUILD HAS SECURED LOCATION FOR MILK STATION

The Young Women's Hospital Guild has arranged for a lecture on the work of the milk station, by Dr. O. R. T. L'Esperance, who has been prominent in the work as it is carried on in Boston. It is hoped to secure the lecture for Thursday evening, March 31. It will be in the high school hall, and will be entirely free to the public. The lecture will be illustrated, and some of the slides being specially prepared for this lecture, will be of great interest to the Lowell public, as showing the importance of the work to be done here.
The location has been secured for the station, in Market street, between Dutton and Worthen. It is hoped to open up next week, but necessary repairs are being made on the interior of the building, and much depends on the length of time it takes to put the place in thorough repair.
Interest in the work is developing, not only among the philanthropic people of the city, but also among the families to be directly benefited by the establishment of a milk depot. There is no doubt but that, with the able management of the Young Women's Guild, the project will succeed, and it should have the support of the charitable public.

WORMS

Unsuspected worms are the cause of numerous little things that go wrong with children. When a child is sick you rarely think that its sickness is caused by worms, yet worms, either directly or indirectly, are the cause of three quarters of all the ills of childhood.

Children, and often-times adults feel out of sorts, are irritable, feel listless and unrefreshed in the morning; suffer with indigestion, have a variable appetite, foul tongue, offensive breath; hard and full belly, with occasional gripings and pains about the navel; eyes heavy, and dull; itching of the nose; short, dry cough; grinding of the teeth; slow fever; and often in children, convulsions—in the majority of cases the cause of all the trouble is worms though you may not suspect their presence.

TRUE'S ELIXIR

a pure vegetable compound, has been the standard household remedy since 1851; it never fails to expel not only worms but all waste matter, leaving the blood rich and pure, the stomach sweet, the bowels regular and the whole system strong and healthy.

The mother who gives her children Dr. True's Elixir regularly is wise, because it not only increases the appetite, acts as a preventative of coughs, colds, fever and worms and gives rugged, robust health.

Bold by all Druggists. Price 35c, 50c and $1.00.
"Keep you and your children well."

FANATIC IS HELD

He Shot Two American Women

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Afghan fanatic who shot and wounded two American women about a week ago while visiting the mosque of Omar near Jerusalem has been arrested and has confessed to having committed the assault. The American charge at Constantinople in a telegram to the state department says that the culprit is being held pending the result of the injuries to the American women, one of whom lost an eye. The officials promise to inflict the severest punishment upon the assassin. Officials of Constantinople have called at the American embassy and expressed their regret at the occurrence.

ment upon the assassin. Officials of Constantinople have called at the American embassy and expressed their regret at the occurrence.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The local council of the Knights of Columbus is to entertain the members and friends at the rooms in Associate building this evening. The national game of Forty-Fives will be the main attraction and, judging by the sentiment of interest in the last games, there will be some skillful playing in an endeavor to establish the supremacy of the winning team. Mr. Michael Dowd will have supervision of the tournament and will arrange the schedule, placing three men on a team. Suitable prizes will be awarded the winners, and lunch will be served at intermission, after which there will be a program of music in keeping with the occasion.

LOWELL MEN

AT THE MEETING OF THE ARK-WRIGHT CLUB

Several Lowell mill men were present at the monthly lunch of the Arkwright club at Young's hotel, Boston, yesterday afternoon, at which the opportunity offered manufacturers by the savings bank life insurance scheme were presented by Harry W. Kimball, the newly elected field secretary of the Massachusetts Savings Insurance league. Mr. Kimball, who until recently was minister of the Union Congregational church at South Weymouth, made a strong plea for wage earners' insurance at cost as one means of reducing the cost of living and thus improving the welfare of the employees. Great interest was shown. Half an hour or more of questioning the speaker followed the formal address.

The Grattan Literary Institute held a social and dance at Associate hall last night, which was attended by a crowd of fair size. The evening's program consisted of a dance order of 20 numbers. Kiltredge's orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

Y. M. C. I., Lincoln hall, tonight.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Today at the Opera House there will be an entire change of program, both of vaudeville and pictures. Commencing with this afternoon and for the remainder of the week the bill will include the Aerial Bartlett, who present an act that is sensational and full of novel features. The Meritt Sisters, clever singing and dancing southerners with a new repertoire of songs, and Pritzlow and Blanchard, a duo of comedians, who also sing and dance well. There will also be an entire change of pictures today and a series of the latest prints of the principal manufacturers will be seen, among which will be seen a number of comedy subjects. The pictures shown at the Opera House are always of the latest and can be depended on to be devoid of all objectionable features. Performances are given daily, both afternoon and evening, running continuously from 2 to 5 each afternoon and with two full shows at night, starting at 7 and about 8.30. Saturday afternoon two full shows are given the same as at night, commencing at 1.30 and 3.15. There will be a concert Sunday afternoon and evening with an entire change of pictures and a new musical program. The prices Sunday are five and ten cents.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today a special musical program in keeping with the day will be offered at the Theatre Voyons. Several of the best of Irish songs will be sung and other features introduced. The feature picture, "The Fence on the Bar Z Ranch," is a very good picture of western life, in which the love affair of two young people is the means of settling an old feud over a boundary line between adjoining ranches. It calls for several very realistic outdoor scenes, and the acting is fine. "The Robber Baron" tells a story of the olden days in a manner so clear that it holds the interest from start to finish. There are other dramatic subjects on the bill and the comedy portion will be unusually funny.

There are 3 Features in Crawford Ranges

which make them superior to any others

1. The Single Damper
2. The Oven heated by cup-joint flues
3. The Two Hods in the base

Either of these features is worth the price of the range. The Single Damper is the greatest help in cooking ever invented. One motion—push the knob to "kindle," "bake" or "check"—the range does the rest.

The Oven is heated by the cup-joint flues all over alike; no "cold corners," no "scorching spots". Quickest and surest baker.

The Two Hods in the base (patented) is a wonderful trouble-saving feature. The ashes fall through a chute into a Hod which is easy to empty. The Coal Hod is beside it.

Gas Ovens and Broilers for end or above range if desired.

Ask the Crawford agent to show you and write us for circular.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

"Uncle Lem's Infirmary," a little one act play, dealing with a funny who is in the midst of his second love affair, will prove fetching to audiences at Hathaway's theatre this week. The little play isn't a bit like all the other rural pieces seen here, and the comedy element is uppermost in it. Henry Horton, a good actor, is cast in the part of the hard hearted "Uncle Lem," who had to connive pretty hard in order to get the "Widow Cashon."

The Three Vagrants constitute a thoroughly good musical team, one of the best seen here in a long time. The men are Italians, with all of the music in their hearts so peculiar to their race. Kate and Harry Jackson are featured in the spectacular story of the sea called "Cupid's Voyage." It's full of comedy and unusual episodes. Other acts on the bill are: Linton and Lawrence, in "The Piano Store"; Granville and Rogers, singers and dancers; W. H. Gallaway, comic artist of Pack; Van Hoven, the mad magician, and the Bathoscope.

Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week, with special seats at the matinees for women.

The theatre will be closed Holy Week, but it will reopen for the remainder of the season Easter Monday.

MATHEWS' MOVING PICTURES

The Indian Scout's Vengeance will be one of the interesting pictures to be shown at the Mathews tonight, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee. The picture will be one of those dealing with the western plains and is full of excitement all the way through. There will also be a feature picture of high standard well staged and finely acted.

Two other reels will be comedy laugh makers, and just what the doctor ordered as a sure cure for the blues. A set of interesting Travelogues and two beautiful illustrated songs complete the bill for five cents.

STAR THEATRE

St. Patrick's day was observed at the Star theatre this afternoon by a complete change of vaudeville, motion pictures and illustrated songs. The first 300 patrons to enter the theatre this afternoon were given St. Patrick's day souvenirs. The show is a strong one and well worth the admission of five cents, which includes a seal.

Y. M. C. I., Lincoln hall, tonight.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Today a first class bill will be presented at the Academy of Music, including Hammond & Forester, the laughsmiths, in a melange of humorous, introducing their original Italian song, "Jim-da-Jeff," and Miss Dorothy Hall, a sprightly singing comedienne. Dan McCallister will sing "The Hat My Father Wore" in a manner that will warm the cockles of all true Irish hearts. Entirely new pictures will be shown, including a biography. Admission, 5 and 10 cents.

STYLE SHOW

And Concert

FRIDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING

The style at our store each season, Spring or Fall, is an authoritative demonstration of everything that is correct from a fashion point of view, in women's and children's wear. The event this season will be of extreme importance to women who desire to be posted on Spring and Summer fashions, as the display will be the most elaborate we've ever made. The Spring air will be visible everywhere, and it will prove decidedly interesting to study the strikingly handsome and becoming fashions IN WOMEN'S ARTISTIC CLOTHES AND MILLINERY.

DURGIN CONFESSED

That He Tried to Wrecked
B. & M. Train

WEST KENNEBUNK, Me., March 17.—Confessing that he placed pieces of iron on the rails for a considerable distance along the eastern division tracks which might have wrecked the Boston & Maine Flying Yankee passenger train which left Portland at 5 o'clock last night, had they not been removed by a man who happened to walk along the tracks some distance back of the young desperado and that he threw stones at the cars as this train passed, Enoch Durgin, an orphan, aged 18, who escaped from the Maine state school for boys Tuesday night, was captured today by Constable E. A. Littlefield. Durgin also confessed that it was he who removed a number of switch lights on the railroad Tuesday night and placed them in the middle of the track with the red light showing to the engineers of several trains, thereby delaying traffic, and who committed three burglaries during the night, including the break at the Boston & Maine station at Old Orchard, where a number of tickets were taken.

When told that he must have been reading dime novels, he exclaimed: "I have not read a novel for six months. I'm practicing to be a professional." He declared that he "will kill the old woman if they take him back to the state school and that he wants to become an inmate of the state prison and will go there. He demolished the cell in which he was placed in the lock-up. As a testimonial of his career he informed the officers that he escaped from the reform school six months ago and before he was captured at Concord, Mass., stole bicycles at Camp Ellis, Kennebunk, Lawrence, Mass., and Reading, Mass. He remembers that before her death his mother lived in Hiram. It is expected he would be arraigned on serious charges today.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Took Part in St. Patrick's Day
Parade in Chicago

CHICAGO, March 17.—Fairly buried in green emblems, banners and bunting, Chicago today received President Taft as its guest in one of the biggest St. Patrick's day celebrations the city has ever known. From the time he stepped off his special train at the 34th street station of the Pennsylvania at 7 a. m. the president saw hardly a building or an individual that was not decorated in green.

Met at the station by a National guard regiment and a large reception committee, President Taft swung into the line of a St. Patrick's day parade which marched through Michigan avenue to the down-town district and escorted him to the LaSalle hotel.

The president came to Chicago as the guest of the Irish Fellowship club and the entire day until his departure for Rochester, N. Y. at 11 o'clock tonight was crowded with events. After meeting the local endorsement committee of the American Red Cross society it was arranged to have him attend a reception given by the Chicago Newspaper club and then at noon to visit the traffic club. A luncheon by the Irish Fellowship club was scheduled for a half an hour later and a brief rest was allowed the president to prepare for his appearance at the auditorium at 3 p. m. to deliver his address on "Concurrence to the down-town district and escorted him to the LaSalle hotel. The conservation meeting was arranged by 18 Chicago clubs.

MORE RIOTING

THE AMERICAN LEGATION IS UNDER GUARD

BOGOTA, Colombia, Wednesday, March 17.—An attempt to renew the street railroad service today caused serious street rioting which continues as this despatch is filed in the early evening. Thus far the mob has respected the American legation which is under police guard. All Colombians employed by the American company owning the railroad system are in serious danger.

NEW STATE ROAD

Legislative Committee Sees Proposed Site

The legislative committee on roads and bridges came up from Lawrence by trolley, this morning, and had a good view of the lay out of the proposed new road from Lowell to Merrimack river.

Arriving in Merrimack square the committee was taken in automobiles to Draught to view the Black North road. Returning to Lowell the members of the committee went to city hall to visit their former brother legislator, Mayor John F. McEahan. After spending a social hour at city hall the committee, accompanied by Mayor McEahan, went to the country club for dinner.

The committee on roads and bridges includes Senators J. H. Hubbard of Lowell, Gideon Abbott of Boston, George Bunting of Methuen and Representatives I. W. Willets of Fall River, George H. Stevens of Draught, H. J. Conant of Worcester, A. J. Burek of Lawrence, A. H. Cushman of Provincetown, Robt. Tytus of Tyringham and Lawrence J. Dugan of Webster. Mr. Hubbard is senate chairman of the committee and Mr. Willets is house chairman. Messenger Cook had the party in law.

One member of the committee, Robt. Tytus of Tyringham, is a millionaire two or three times over, but there isn't a more democratic fellow on the committee than the same Mr. Tytus. He has a little farm in Tyringham, about 1600 acres in all, and he is erecting a cottage there at the insignificant cost of about $500,000.

REVOLVER FIGHT

O'Brien Shot and Fatally Injured

EAST ST. LOUIS, March 17.—William O'Brien was shot and fatally wounded in a revolver fight with two policemen early today after he had shot and seriously injured three men in robbing two saloons. A dozen men chased O'Brien down the street, showering bullets after him until O'Brien encountered two policemen, who brought him down with wounds in the head and lungs.

NEGRO IN JAIL

Is Charged With Killing Strike Leader

WHEELING, W. Va., March 17.—The excitement which ran riot in Martins Ferry last night, following the announcement of the death of Solomon Edwards, the strike leader, quieted down today. Robinson, the negro anarchist charged with killing Edwards, is strongly guarded in the St. Charles, D. C. jail, but a lynching is not unlikely. The authorities anticipate no further trouble.

AFTERNOON SOCIAL CLUB
A surprise, in the form of a presentation of gifts to its president, Mrs. A. E. Brooks of 11 Normal avenue, marked the gathering of the Afternoon Social club yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Bowen in Wilder street. Mrs. Brooks, taken by surprise, expressed her appreciation in a few suitable remarks which showed how pleased she was at the thoughtful remembrance of her friends. On the afternoon's program also was a reading by Mrs. J. Walter Richardson of Stevens street, who in a well-written theme described in a brief manner the life of St. Patrick, an appropriate subject of the eve of the birthday of that saint, and which her friends listened to with great interest. Following this literary treat, music and songs were indulged in by different members and was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served by the hostess and later the gathering broke up with the understanding of meeting next at the home of Mrs. A. D. Grindle on Marginal street.

IN THE CHURCHES

Several Meetings Held Last Night

"America: Her Mission and Destiny," was the subject of a very interesting lecture by Rev. N. T. Whitaker, pastor of the Central M. E. church, last night. Speaking of constitutions, Mr. Whitaker said that they grow slowly; they are not the sudden production of men of genius. The American rebellion struck the death knell of human slavery.

"The north and the south," he continued, "have tried to break the constitution, but it has withstood them, although 15 amendments have been added to it."

"Peoples of different origins have been brought to this country by forces they did not understand. The early Americans were not colonists of foreign powers, nor were they a union of federated states. They constituted a strong young nation."

"We must contend against illiteracy, intemperance, anarchism, indiscriminate immigration and the centralizing of people in the cities. It is surprising with all of our facilities for education, how much illiteracy there is in America today. Popular government, popular education, must obtain to the fullest extent here. President Madison once said: 'Popular government without popular education is a farce.' The public schools are the bulwark of the land."

"Intemperance is a close second to illiteracy. We work so hard in America that we often shatter their nerves. They feel the need of stimulants and they get them to keep themselves up. And, in a measure, that accounts for much of the drinking of liquor in this country. The anti-saloon movement has done much to overcome the evil, having closed 30 saloons every day during the past year."

"Anarchism is a cancerous blot on the nation. I do not mean to have this confounded with socialism, for socialism is necessary in America, where great monopolies seem to be acquiring control. And the great question of capital and labor will not be settled until it is settled in the interests of all the people."

"The immigrant question needs our attention. Forty-eight per cent. of those now coming to our shores are criminals or paupers. We welcome the honest, clean-minded immigrant here. And there are the too great flocking of people to the cities."

First Congregational

The monthly supper and entertainment constituted the attraction at the First Congregational church, last night. A bit of drama entitled "How the Story Grew," was presented by eight young ladies of the church. It was in five scenes and told the story of a new family's arrival in a small town, and what the neighbors had to say about it. The cast was as follows: "Mrs. Brown," Miss Beattie Hanson; "Mrs. Green," Miss Winnie Davis; "Mrs. Bean," Miss Lovilla Peabody; "Mrs. Doolittle," Miss Gladys Kimball; "Mrs. Buck," Miss Ethel L. Putnam; "Mrs. Taylor," Miss Towse E. Warrall; "Mrs. Snow," Miss Lilla Cutler; "Mrs. White," Miss Myrtle Houston.

The supper was served under the direction of Mrs. Leonard Hartley, Mrs. Frank Putnam and Mrs. W. W. Kelly. At the ice cream table were Miss Lilla Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ball, Mrs. E. E. Staples, Miss Gladys Kimball, Winifred Hanson and William Laddell.

Worthen St. M. E. Church

The members of Miss Jessie Todd's class of the Worthen Street M. E. church gave an entertainment in the vestry of the church last evening. The sketch, "How They Kept a Secret," given by Misses Gertrude Brady, Gladys Deury, May Quimby, Daisy Clark, Ella Fraser, Ethel Smith and Messrs. Walter Matheson and Thos. Phelps, was well received. The other numbers of the evening were: Piano solo, Miss Helen Choate; song, Miss Lillian Marshall; reading, Miss Hazel Conners; wand drill, Susie Green, Fannie Irvine, Blanche Burritt, Alice Burritt, Georgie Wright, pianist; sketch, "How They Kept a Secret," between scenes, piano duet, Miss Todd and Miss Choate; song, Mr. Joseph Heathcock.

Pagoda Land Travel Talk

At the First Baptist church last night, Sumner R. Vinton gave a travel talk on "Pagoda Land" under the auspices of the mission circles of the First and Worthen Street Baptist churches. The lecture was illustrated with a series of pictures, descriptive of life in the "Pagoda land."

First Trinitarian Church

The members of the Sunday school of the First Trinitarian Congregational church gave their annual "Unique Entertainment" in the vestry last night before a large number of the congregation. The Sunday school superintendent, Hector Turnbull, had direct charge of the evening's program, which was as follows: Piano solo, Miss Laura Shelters; Mrs. McGraw's class; reading, Mrs. Merrill; dialogue, "Susan's Finish," Miss Lillian Hoye's class; piano solo, Miss Tiffany; Mrs. Sullivan's class; Primary department—tableaux, Mrs. Knelett's class; sketch, "Three O'Clock Train," Mr. Cashin's class; solo, Mrs. Walter Muzzay; Mrs. Kennell's class; intermediate department—piano solo, Esther Mulgrave; solo, Dorothy Leach; duet, Emily Hartford and Alfredda Morris; violin solo, Marian Taylor; recitation, Dorothy Moody; Miss Wood's class; "A Bachelor's Di-

HOW TO TREAT SKIN DISEASES

A Simple Remedy That Can Be Tried For 10 Cents

Many skin diseases like Eczema and Sulf. Rheum are due to an external cause that is little understood, and are not the result of impure blood. The taking of internal remedies is a waste of time and money, as many sufferers can testify. The simplest and safest remedy is Cadum, the new medical preparation. Cadum, when applied, excludes the air and all external agents that cause inflammation and irritation. It stops the itching at once, and the healing process begins immediately. Wonderful cures are reported not only of Eczema and Sulf. Rheum, but of less serious troubles like Psoriasis, Ringworm, Acne, Herpes, Scaly Skin, Scabs, Itchings, Rash, Eruptions, Blisters, Blackheads, etc. Trial box 10c. Large box 25c. All druggists.

FORMAL OPENING

SPRING FASHIONS

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

IN connection with this opening we wish to announce that our Women's Coat and Suit Department has undergone a change of management, and on Friday we will open "A Change of Buyer's Sale" in this department. Our entire spring stock was selected by our new buyer. We want your opinion on this new buyer's showing of Spring Outer Apparel for women, small women and misses. We think it is a collection of exceptional interest and merit.

IT SHOULD INTEREST YOU. It will help you to come to Gilbride's Friday or Saturday "on suspicion," as Elbert Hubbard used to say, that you will find something to make you glad you came. The choice of the newest models from the leading manufacturers will be found here, also many exclusive designs which cannot be found elsewhere.

This occasion will be made memorable by means of the most unexampled value giving. Its occurrence on the very eve of Easter, when our suit stock is at the maximum of perfection, adds extraordinary interest to the occasion and makes it not only a grand bargain event, but an exposition of all that is newest and best in Spring Fashions at prices that will save you money—and every suit is a beauty.

THE GILBRIDE COMPANY - On the Corner

Kenngott, representing his class. Miss Elsie Craigin was accompanist.

Foreign Mission Society

The Ladies Foreign Mission society of the Pawtucket Congregational church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Cummings at her home in Seventh avenue, and Mrs. George Anhalt, the hostess in entertaining the members. The subject of the afternoon was "The Gospel in Latin Countries, Spain, Austria and Portugal," and interesting papers were read by Mrs. Thomas Varnum, Mrs. Charles Miles, Mrs. C. G. Coburn and Miss Louise Blanchard. The program committee was Mrs. A. M. Horr and Mrs. F. E. Harris. There was a good attendance.

Young People's Union

A sparkling little operetta entitled "Love and Whist" was presented by the Young People's union of Grace church in the church vestry, last night and the performance will be repeated tonight.

The scene is laid in the Imperial hotel in Paris, where a charming bit of love comedy is enacted, the two rivals for the hand of a pretty American being an inebriated globe trotter and a captain of Her Majesty's Dragon Guards. The cast is as follows:

"Courtney Fairfax, (a cosmopolitan) Walter H. Robinson; "Captain Alder shot," George F. Seede; Mrs. Gerald Sherwood," (an American grand dame) Miss Rena J. Landers; Miss Dorothy Sherwood," (her daughter) Miss Jessie Robinson; "Mignon," (a maid servant) Miss Reulah McDonald.

Before the curtain rose, and between the two acts of the operetta, there were piano solos by Miss Alice Smith and readings by Miss Bertha Chapman. Miss Hazel S. Brainard was accompanist.

High Street Church The Men's club of High street church held its annual ladies' night in the church vestry last night. The men prepared supper in the church and served it themselves.

Dr. W. B. Jackson presided, Warren T. Reid sang and Rev. A. C. Ferrin read a Kipling selection. The speaker of the evening was Robert A. Woods, of Boston, who told of settlement work in the North End of Boston. The work of the University settlement has been going on for 25 years, having started in London and now being operated in all the large cities and in many of the smaller cities of this country. The work reaches out after the boys and girls in an endeavor to cause them to live rightly and looks out for the vacations and recreations of the boys and girls. The speaker was very interesting. Rev. George C. Wright, Mabel Hill and Rev. A. C. Ferrin also spoke.

MERRIMACK VALLEY CITIES TO HOLD CONFERENCE

A conference of delegates from the different cities of the Merrimack valley, relative to railroad traffic service, will be held at the New American house, in this city, Monday, March 28, at 1 p. m.

Manchester, Nashua, Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill will each have three delegates representing the trade associations of each city, and dinner will be served before the discussion starts. The chief speaker will be J. B. Smith of Boston, the traffic expert, and one well informed on how Boston is handling the freight transportation question, having made a study of the terminals there. Mr. Smith declares that methods of 25 years ago still obtain there.

The conference will probably develop some unified effort on the part of the Prof. Louis A. Olney of the Lowell Textile school spoke at the March meeting of the Pawtucket Brotherhood last night. He spoke on "Dying." His lecture was illustrated. Refreshments were served by F. E. Ayer and Robert McKinley of the executive committee.

Sunday School Reunion

Two men and forty women met in the vestry of the Kirk Street church last night. It was a reunion of Miss Julia Ward's class of ladies in the Sunday school of the church and two men only were invited. They were the pastor, Rev. James E. Gregg, and the superintendent of the Sunday school, Frank W. Hall. Supper was served by some of the young women of the church, and the tables were very tastefully set and decorated. Miss Lizzy E. Kennedy presided over the post-prandial exercises. There were expressions of love and gratitude toward the past teachers of the class and to Miss Ward, the present teacher, for their years of faithful service. A number of letters were read from former and absent members, among them one from Mrs. Dickinson of Corona, Calif., once a teacher of the class, and widow of Rev. Dr. Chas. A. Dickinson, who was pastor of the church 1832-1838.

Miss Ward spoke with feeling and appropriateness of her connection with the class, and expressed the great satisfaction which had come to her in doing this part of the work of the church.

A Dead Stomach

Of What Use is it to Anyone?

Thousands? yes, hundreds of thousands of people throughout America are taking the slow death treatment daily. They are murdering their own stomachs, the best friend they have, and in their sublime ignorance they think they are putting aside the laws of nature.

This is no sensational statement; it is a startling fact, the truth of which any honorable physician will not deny. These thousands of people are swallowing daily huge quantities of poison and other strong digesters, made especially to digest the food in the stomach without any aid at all from the digestive membrane of the stomach.

In other words, they are taking from the stomach the work that nature intended it should do, and are also refusing it the only chance for exercise it has.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets relieve distressed stomach in five minutes; they do more. Taken regularly for a few weeks they build up the run down stomach and make it strong enough to digest the best food. Then indigestion, belching, sour stomach and headache will go.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are sold by druggists everywhere and by Carter & Sherburne, who guarantee them. 50 cents a box.

$75,000 LOSS

Fire Threatened Business Section of Haverhill

HAVERHILL, March 17.—The business section of this city was threatened by a $75,000 fire at 5 o'clock this morning, the board of trade, Littlefield and Morse blocks, all wooden, on Merrimack street, being gutted. The Floyd & Taylor Clothing Co. lost about $20,000 on stock while other occupants suffered heavy damage by water and smoke. The origin of the fire is not known but is supposed to have been caused by an explosion in the basement of one of the buildings at about 5 o'clock, inmates of the lodging-house in the Abbott building reporting that they had been aroused by a concussion which jarred the building. The first alarm was sent in from box 13 and a second calling out all available apparatus in the city followed upon the arrival of Chief Gordon. The flames spread from the basement to the roof, through the walls and threatened destruction to all buildings in that vicinity until a dozen hydrants and three fire engine streams were directed against it; the fire being controlled after a two hours' fight. The damage to the property will be $10,000, while the remainder of the loss will be borne by the Floyd & Taylor concern, the Varney photograph studio, Horace Noyes, pianos and jewelry, and Laing & Besse, barbers.

TO AVERT STRIKE

Officials Trying to End Trouble

CHICAGO, March 17.—When Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the interstate commerce committee, and Dr. Charles P. Neil, commissioner of labor, arrived in the city from Washington today they were prepared to take up the matter of settling the controversy between the locomotive firemen and the western railroads. Meantime many telegrams are coming to O. L. Dickerson, the general manager's representative, urging that the railroads do everything in their power to avert a strike. One telegram received by Mr. Dickerson yesterday from the Commercial club of Grand Forks, N. D., insisted that a railroad strike at this time would result in thousands of acres of fruit and farm lands being left unseeded and would prove disastrous to the business interest in the west. To each telegram Mr. Dickerson replied that the railroads felt confident a settlement would be reached and that there would be no interruption of traffic.

BLARNEY STONE

In Front of President Taft's Plate

CHICAGO, March 17.—When President Taft sits down tonight to the banquet to be given in his honor by the Irish Fellowship club he will occupy a chair almost as ornate as a king's throne. It is the work of 12 joiners who spent seven weeks on it under the direction of an architect. A bit of the Blarney stone in front of his plate, two long stands of ivory from Blarney castle trailing over the railing on the table in front of him, and a large square of sod from the Emerald Isle with bits of shamrock growing among the grass on display nearby will form a part of the decorations of the banquet hall.

DISCOUNT RATE

Raised by the Bank of England

LONDON, March 17.—The directors of the Bank of England at their weekly meeting today raised their rate of discount from 3 to 4 per cent. This action was caused by the continued foreign demands for gold which seriously depleted the bank's reserves. These are now nearly $25,000,000 lower than at the same time last year and prospective further withdrawals of the metal necessitated measures to increase the bank's holding.

For some time India has been drawing heavily on the available supplies of gold and considerable sums are still wanted to move the large crops. In addition to the demand there is a large number of foreign issues, including a big delivery of American bonds in exchange for British gold to be provided for. Forthcoming international monetary requirements also demand the building up of the reserves.

HOPNER CASE

WAS CONTINUED UNTIL NEXT MONDAY

No testimony was taken in the Hopner equity hearing before Charles H. Conant yesterday, the entire session being taken up with the opening. The case was adjourned until Monday at 10 when the witnesses will be heard. While the couple have not lived together as man and wife for the past 10 years, Mrs. Hopner has lived in the house with her husband and has refused to give him any money. Since the bringing of the bill in equity by Mr. Hopner his wife has brought suit for separate support.

THE PEQUOT CLUB

The Pequots held a well attended meeting Tuesday evening at their club room in the Odd Fellows building. Considerable business was transacted. The committee in charge of the coming dance reported progress. After the meeting, a musical program was carried out by the Pequot quartet, consisting of Messrs. Cassin, Poole, Shea and Lane; solo, Mr. Curtis; violin section, Mr. Bowers; recitation, Mr. McQueen; piano selection, P. Danekert; solo, Mr. Doherty; reading, Mr. Jolly; solo, Mr. White. Mr. John Cashman gave a very interesting talk about New York. After the meeting, refreshments were served.

DO YOU WANT A FINE NEW

$375 PIANO FREE

1st PRIZE

Consolidated Manufacturers' LIMERICK CONTEST

2nd Prize - $150 Credit Certificates
3rd Prize - $125 Credit Certificates

And Over $12,500 Worth of Additional Prizes

Do You Want a Fine, New $375 Piano? Just think of a good line to complete the Limerick (verse) shown on the coupon below. You have the same opportunity as anyone to win the piano or one of the other prizes. It costs nothing to try, and is the greatest offer ever made to those desiring a piano.

All you have to do is to write the line. There is no catch. Impartial men will act as judges. This great contest is put on through the co-operation with the largest piano manufacturers in the world to advertise the Huntington piano and to acquaint everyone in New England with the fact that the Ring Piano Co. are the sole factory distributors for this piano in Lowell. Instead of spending this large sum in expensive magazine advertising, and it is for piano buyers that this contest is run. We also intend to use the good Limericks for advertising cards, etc.

THE PRIZES First prize—A fine new piano, valued at $375. Second credit certificate for $125. Third prize—A credit certificate for $90. Following these in groups of 6 or more, each contestant sending in the next best answers will be given a credit certificate for $1 less than those previous—that is, six at $89, next six at $88, etc.—until the $12,500 has been awarded.

Special Advertising Appropriation: In addition to the above prizes the Company will voluntarily issue to each of the remaining contestants a special certificate of credit, of $25, as an award for their effort in this contest.

These certificates are good on the purchase of any new piano or player-piano in our warehouses at regular retail price. Time of certificate is limited.

SIMPLE CONDITIONS The Limerick shown on coupon below needs one more line. Fill this out. This last line should rhyme with the first line. Write plainly and send in coupon filled out, or exact written copy, as no answer will be accepted unless this is done, and address all answers before 3:30 p. m. March 23, 1910.

Here is a partial list of words that rhyme for the verse below: Plown, prone, thrown, tone, loan, sown, grown, alone, cone, lone, atone, done, dethrone, own, disown, etc.

COUPON
Fill out last line of Verse below, answer questions, sign Name, and Address.
The Huntington name is well known,
True worth it always has shown,
A better to buy,
'Tis useless to try.

Write Your Line Here
I submit herewith my Limerick and agree to abide by the decision of the Judges.

EVACUATION DAY

Parade in So. Boston Today

BOSTON, March 17.—Evacuation day, the 134th anniversary of the departure of 12,000 British troops under General William Howe from the shores of South Boston, was celebrated most elaborately in that section of the city today. A large military and civic parade was the spectacular feature of the celebration. Richmond Pearson Hobson, representative in congress from Alabama and General Isaac Hays, wood were expected guests of honor.

Cloudy and cool, unpromising weather prevailed when a salute of cannon at the Charlestown navy yard ushered in the celebration at sunrise. Feasted with flags and bunting many buildings on South Boston gave a gala appearance

ACTOR ARRESTED

HE IS CHARGED WITH LARCENY OF $75

A man giving his name as Harry E. Muntone, his occupation as an actor, and his residence as Chicago, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Inspectors Maher and Lummie on a warrant charging him with the larceny of $75 from Louise and William C. Stevens, the latter of Boston. He was taken back to Boston last night by Inspector Hart.

DR. J. H. SCHENCK & SON, Philadelphia, Pa.

LOS ANGELES, March 17.—Two to one were the morning odds on Sam Langford in his fight with Jim Flynn this afternoon at Vernon. There was a great deal of betting and a keener interest displayed than in any other fight held here since the Burns-O'Brien fiasco. This was due to Flynn's showing against Langford recently when he won the newspaper decision in ten rounds and got even for the one-round knockout Langford administered in San Francisco lately. The apparent reversal of form gave Flynn good support. Nevertheless, even money was to be had that he would not last more than 15 rounds of the 45 scheduled.

Both men have trained faithfully. About ten pounds the better in weight will not be Flynn's only advantage over the Boston negro. He has a much longer reach and is several inches taller.

MORE LIGHT, LESS COST

That's what the LABELLE PATENT means to you. It's simple and cannot get out of order. The moment that it's adjusted you begin to save 25 to 50 per cent. on your gas bill and at the same time your lights are brighter all over the house. The cost is only $2. See the demonstration at

MONEY TO LOAN
Before making a loan there are two things to be considered. Have your dealings confidential and be sure you do not jeopardize your reputation or peace of mind. All companies guarantee these things in their advertisements but a shrewd borrower will go deeper than an advertisement that is only meant to draw attention to their line of business, and investigate for himself the methods of the firm with whom he intends to deal. Our methods are open to any investigation.

"THE WEARING OF THE GREEN"

DION BOUCCAULT, TO WHOM THE WORLD OWES "THE WEARING OF THE GREEN" IN ITS PRESENT FORM.

Oh! Paddy, dear, and did you hear the news that's goin' round,
The shauwrock is forbid, by law, to grow on Irish ground;
St. Patrick's Day no more we'll keep; his colors can't be seen,
For there's a bloody-law agin' 'The Wearing of the Green';
I met with Napper Tandy and he told me by the hand,
And he said: "How's poor old Ireland, and how does she stand?"
She's the most distressful country that ever you have seen;
They're hanging men and women there for Wearing of the Green."

Then since the color we must wear is England's cruel red,
Sure Ireland's sons will never forget the blood that they have shed;
You may take the shamrock from your hat, and cast it on the sod,
But 'twill take root and flourish still, tho' under foot 'tis trod;
When the law can stop the blades of grass from growing as they grow,
And when the leaves in summer time their verdure dare not show;
Then I will change the color I wear in my cauboon,
But till that day, please God, I'll stick to Wearing of the Green.

But if at last our color should be torn from Ireland's heart,
Her sons with shame and sorrow from the dear old soil will part;
I've heard whispers of a country that lies beyond the sea,
Where rich and poor stand equal, in the light of freedom's day;
Oh! Erin, must we leave you, driven by the tyrant's hand,
Must we ask a mother's welcome from a strange but happy land?
Where the cruel cross of England's thralldom never shall be seen,
And where, thank God, we'll live and die, still Wearing of the Green.

destined soul must of necessity reflect the life of the Divine Exemplar, of Sanctity, and consequently the truly Christian soul must faithfully reflect the three grand phases of our Blessed Saviour's life—the incarnation with its accompanying mysteries of joy, the redemption with its attendant mysteries of sorrow, and the Resurrection with its kindred mysteries of triumph and of glory.

To the Irish, Patrick brought the blessed tidings of great joy—down to us, to that race high-dominant, "God's truth seemed but some pious legend thing," for heart-truth were they, and the truth, and so God gave to them that priceless grace, that by truth confronted they should recognize the truth, embrace it, and cleave unto it.

Hence, knowing that heaven preserved this sacred land in barbaric innocence, and that she came to us, knowing that never did she know either Grecian sophist or Roman philosopher, or any of the vile brood of heretical teachers, knowing consequently that never did she break the "anointed by deed" but she succeeded in being destroyed, the faith was the purest of the pure, her hope the firmest of the firm, her charity the most fervent of the fervent. And faith is joy, and hope is joy, and divine love is the joy of joys. And so as I contemplate how brightly God's truth enlightened those chosen people's minds, how high God's love burned them as on wings, how intensely God's love inflamed their hearts, it comes to me as a conviction that never since the Angel Sentinel was placed at the gates of Eden, has other nation experienced such unbounded joy as did Ireland in the days of her Christian childhood.

Was surely, then, to be expected that the nation whose infancy in the faith so perfectly reflected the joyous childhood of the Saviour, should in the maturity of faith be called to the grander, nobler, sublimer imitation of Jesus in the maturity and perfection of his girl land manhood. Was it not to be expected that the nation whose early life reflected with such singular exactness the joys of the incarnation, should be called to reproduce with like uniqueness of accuracy, the sorrows of the redemption? And so, indeed, it has happened. Ireland was at length called upon to take up her cross and to follow the King of Sorrows in his saddest of sad pilgrimages. Without hesitation she responded to that call, and for one thousand years, with tireless energy and unflinching fortitude she walked her way of the cross.

But Ireland's Night of Sorrows shall pass away. Her Day of Glory shall break at length. For, surely, it is most reasonable to conclude, from the principles proven at the outset, that the people whose national life has so accurately reflected the joy of the incarnation and the sorrow of the redemption, shall likewise some day reflect the glory of the Resurrection. And we not, indeed, obliged by the very force of the principle that all Christian life is a reproduction of the Divine Exemplar's life, to conclude that the people who have been called upon to reproduce with such unparalleled accuracy of detail the joyous life of the Child-God and the sorrowful life of the Man-God, shall be called upon some day or other to reproduce with like fidelity to truth, the glorious life of the God-Man arisen from the dead? Ireland, then, must have her day of glory.

Indeed, then, Ireland, thou art the very Christ among the nations. Thou hast reproduced with the utmost accuracy the joyous life and the sorrowful life of the Redeemer. Thou wilt reproduce his glorious life. Unbounded, therefore, have been thy joys; beyond measure, have been thy sorrows. Thy glories shall be beyond compare. And so, despite the dolors past and present, despite the disfigurement and uncomeliness, despite thy present lowliness and ignominy, despite the fact that thou art long been a folly and a scandal to other lands, despite the fact that in the nations thy place is left void and that thou art lost from the list of the free, thou art called upon some day or other to reproduce with like fidelity to truth, the glorious life of the God-Man arisen from the dead? Ireland, then, must have her day of glory.

MISS BUTTRICK'S WILL

EXTRA

NEARLY $100,000

In Bequests to Y. M. C. A. and Other Local Religious Organizations

Several Lowell church and missionary organizations are mentioned in the will of the late Martha M. Buttrick which was filed today at the probate court in Cambridge.

It will be recalled that Martha Buttrick and her brother, James M. Buttrick, some time ago gave gratuitously the site on John street on which the home of the Young Women's Christian association now stands, and since her death, March 10, 1910, the probating of her will has been awaited with great expectancy, as it was believed that she would make a number of public bequests.

The will of Martha M. Buttrick was drawn Feb. 19, 1908. At the recent session of the probate court in this city when the will did not appear for probate the opinion was expressed by certain lawyers that the will was made many years ago, which was not the case. It has since been stated that the testatrix desired that the will be not probated directly after her death.

The will names Austin K. Chadwick as executor. The real estate mentioned amounts to $7000, and the personal property to $90,000. The heirs-at-law are Ernest G. Buttrick of Lowell, a nephew, and Helen Buttrick of Lowell, a niece.

The first bequest is that of a wealth of bric-a-brac and other small articles to the Concord Antiquarian society.

Under the original will the house, land, etc., at 333 Westford street is bequeathed to the Highland Congregational church for a parsonage as long as that church remains evangelical and Protestant.

To the Highland Congregational church is left $100, the income to be known as the Martha Buttrick Bible fund for the graduates of the family department of the Sunday school.

Whatever books the deceased owned are left to the Highland Congregational church to select what they desire, while the rest goes to the Y. M. C. A.

To the W. C. T. U. is left $100.

To the Mass. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, $500.

To the Lowell Humane society, $300.

To the Y. M. C. A. building fund,

$3000.

To the Congregational Educational society, $1000.

To the Congregational Home Missionary society, $1000.

To the American Missionary association, $1000.

To the Congregational Church Building society, $1000.

In addition to the above are a number of smaller private bequests, and the residue of the estate is left in trust for her two heirs-at-law and after their death the residue is to go to the Highland Congregational church, the W. C. T. U., the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., the Young Women's Christian association of Lowell and the Home for Little Wanderers of Boston.

On Nov. 11, 1909, a codicil was written, revoking the bequest of the house and land to the Highland Congregational church as a parsonage and leaving them to the Y. M. C. A. to be used as a home for the secretary in memory of her dear brother, the late James G. Buttrick.

FOR LOWELL TEAM

More New Players Are Under Contract

And still they come. Who come? More ball players for the Lowell team. James Lemke of Camden, N. J., has signed a Lowell contract to play first base, and it is believed that Lemke settles the worryment over the initial bag, for up to date of all the players Manager Gray has under his wing there was none that he could bank on for first base like Lemke. The latter was recommended by Feaster, who comes here from the Philadelphia Nationals.

Another new find is Joseph Grestenfeld of Philadelphia, a third baseman, who is touted to be a regular Billy Nash.

Chas. Lavis of Boston and Providence, a part owner of the Providence team and a cousin of John J. Sullivan, "Lowell's Leading Tailor," writes Manager Gray that he has six players which Lowell may have for the season. With all the limber at command there is no reason in the world why Lowell shouldn't have a first class team this year.

POLICE COURT

This morning's session of the police court lasted but a few minutes there being but two offenders in the dock. Alphonse Gibbons and Theodore Parent, charged with being drunk, pleaded guilty and each was fined $5.

JOHN E. REDMOND

HON. JOHN E. REDMOND

Under Whose Able Leadership Ireland Will Soon Win Home Rule

The Irish race today while venerating the memory of St. Patrick looks to John Redmond and the party of which he is the leader for the early achievement of legislative independence and, judging from his commanding position in the British parliament, his ability as a statesman, and his great generalship, the Irish nation in centering its hopes in his leadership will not be disappointed. Below we cite a statement of the present situation and one of many tributes paid to Redmond by distinguished pro-British organs, that have usually assailed everything Irish:

LONDON ESTIMATE

OF JOHN E. REDMOND

Under the heading, "Men of the Moment," the Westminster Gazette says: "It has been said that no one can succeed in the house of commons who does not possess indomitable courage and perseverance. But more is needed than mere physical energy to cut a figure at Westminster. One must, above all, have the gift of speech and the power of impressing the assembly with force and character. For behind the spoken word, however brilliant or powerful, is the man shaping a policy to a definite end. They look also for breadth of view and high purpose in the leaders of parties, for a glimpse of that vision without which people as the Psalmist says, must perish. Mr. Redmond's speech in the house of commons may be taken as affording a test of these qualities which make for mastery in an independent assembly. His oratorical power is one of the most precious possessions of the house and his persistence, courage and energy in pursuit of a great ideal have long since given him that commanding position which belongs alone to men of character.

No one doubts that if he had chosen any other career—that if, for instance, he had kept at the bar—he would have been one of the leading advocates of the day. Had he entered politics as a member of either of the great parties he would have attained a position of eminence on the front bench. He might have well hoped some day to be prime minister of this country. But as a leader of the Irish party he has shown the gratitude of his countrymen, and in politics gratitude is a varying quantity that may altogether disappear before the gust of popular passions. The house, therefore, takes off its hat so to speak, when it thinks of the personality of the man shaping a policy to a definite end. They look also which other men tumble over one another to win. For an enduring name and fame as a British statesman were undoubtedly within Mr. Redmond's grasp had he taken to the high road of politics. His own road is, of course, the highest road of all for a patriotic Irishman, but it is a road that few men would care to tread; who have any thought for their own repose, or for the good things of the political world. Members like to picture the leader of the Irish party in classic toga, a striking Mark Antony attitude. For he is one of the few men in the house who suggest a Roman senator. There is something almost imperial in his attitude as he sits in his corner seat below the gateway with folded arms and knotted brows, as one may see him on an Irish night. He has a sense of humor, but has rarely, if ever, been known to make a joke in the house, although he is witty enough in conversation.

His strength as a parliamentarian lies in his just appreciation of the political situation. If opportunity and occasion are important in politics, he may be said to be a master in political science. For he knows when to play the waiting game and when to throw

BIG GOVT. ORDER

For 1,000,000 Yards of Cloth Received By Mass., Mfg. Co.

The Massachusetts mills have received another government order for 1,000,000 yards of olive drab cloth for soldier uniforms. This is the second 1,000,000 yard order for these goods received by the Massachusetts mills from the government. This particular kind of cloth originated with the Massachusetts mills.

TO GET HEARING

Hotel Men Want 4th Class License

The local hotel keepers are desirous of having the fourth class license, which they enjoyed up to within a few years ago, restored, a communication to that effect having been received by the board of police this morning from Lawyer William H. Bent, representing the Hotel Keepers' Association.

They also want a public hearing on the question and further desire an extension of time for the filing of their applications in the event of the board favoring the restoration of the fourth class license.

The board decided to give a public hearing on the question next Tuesday morning and also to allow the hotel keepers until next Thursday to file their applications.

Up to three years ago the hotel keepers enjoyed the privileges of a fourth class license, the sale of bottled goods greatly increasing the receipts, and when it was decided to only grant an innholders license to the hotel keepers several gave up their hotel licenses and applied for first and fourth class licenses for common victuallers and retail dealers.

The innkeepers are also desirous that if the board favors the restoration of the fourth class license that the total fee for a hotel license will be $2000.

FELL FROM POLE

Painter Met With a Serious Accident

Adelbert or Albert Duff, a painter in the employ of the Boston & Northern street railway, fell from a pole, which he was painting, at the corner of Bridge and Fourth streets, this forenoon, and received a severe shaking up. The ambulance was summoned, but he refused to take a ride. He was taken into Spaulding's paint shop across the street from the scene of the accident. Some wag said that the painter's downfall was due to the fact that he was using the wrong colored paint.

Girl Injured

An Assyrian girl, name unknown, was removed in the ambulance from the Hamilton Mfg. Co. to the Lowell hospital this forenoon. While working on a machine she had sustained slight injuries to her left hand.

AN AUTO BURNED

Went Up in Smoke at Tewksbury

An automobile valued at $3000 and the property of the Church Street garage corporation went up in smoke on the Lawrence road in North Tewksbury at an early hour today. The machine was a "New Rambler," which means a Rambler of the 1910 pattern, and it held seating accommodations for seven passengers. Back firing ignited the gasoline and away she went.

Milo Brown, treasurer of the Church Street garage, and a professional chauffeur were returning from Lawrence to Lowell when the accident occurred. They had been demonstrating the car to a Lawrence man, a prospective purchaser. On the return trip the machine kept up a ceaseless back firing and finally stalled. The chauffeur was cranking the machine and Mr. Brown was standing in the road beside him, when the big show started. It started with a bang and report that could be heard some distance. Mr. Brown and the chauffeur flew for the stone wall and in less time than it takes to tell it the machine was a mass of flames. They telephoned to the garage and a machine was sent to their relief. Snow was shoveled and cast on the fire, but it didn't do any good. The machine was partially insured.

OLD HIBERNIAN

Terrence Gray Member for 56 Years

Mr. Terrence Gray, father of James J. Gray, manager of the Lowell Baseball team, claims to be the oldest member of the A. O. H. in the United States. Mr. Gray is well known in this city, having resided here since 1873, and is one of the old standbys of St. Patrick's parish.

TERRENCE GRAY

For years he and his family made their home in Salem street and "Terry," as his friends called him, was one of the oldest pillars of the church. He was born in Ireland and joined the Hibernians in that country. He was only 19 years of age at the time and he has retained his membership ever since, and now he is 75 years old. When he sailed for America he received a transfer card and was affiliated with Division 9 of New York city. After ten years' residence in the Metropolis he came to Lowell and, fortified with credentials from the New York division, became a member of Division 1 in 1873. Mr. Gray relates many interesting stories of his early experiences in the Hibernians. He says he was never affiliated with an order that brought to him more interest and comfort than did the A. O. H. He speaks of the early days of the organization in a most interesting manner and tells of the incidents that came to the attention of the officers. Mr. Gray, though 75 years of age, has never been compelled to secure the services of a physician in his life. He is in perfect health and is happy with his family of children and grandchildren. In his home in Tolman avenue, Pawtucketville, his great pleasure is to talk and joke and relate stories of his early experiences in Lowell. He is a great storyteller and his talks of the early days of Lowell and some of the old-timers are listened to with the greatest attention. He is proud of his family of boys and girls, and he also has the greatest love for his grandchildren. To say that this feeling is reciprocated is needless, for Mr. Gray himself says that no better children or grandchildren live than his.

"NO VOTE, NO TAX"

CHICAGO, March 17.—While thousands of Irish Americans participated in celebrations in honor of their patron saint today, the "no vote, no tax" association tried to win the hearts of Erin's sons and daughters. A women's band took its place in an automobile decorated with green and playing tunes dear to the sons of Ireland was driven about the city, while members of the association passed out placards reading as follows:

Saint Patrick
Drove the Snakes Out of Ireland
Let President Taft
Drive Taxation Out of America.
Ireland and Women Should Be Free.
Join the "No Vote, No Tax" Assn.

LIQUOR LICENSES

115 Applications Filed in Police Board Office

The time for filing applications for liquor licenses expired at noon today. There were 115 applications made as against 120 last year. Of the whole number of applications filed there were 52 first and fourth class common victualler and retail dealers' applications, 31 hotels, six clubs, three fourth class wholesale, two first and fourth class common victualler and wholesale dealers and one brewery.

There were but six new applications for licenses, namely: Joseph H. Clark & Co., J. H. Kennedy & Co., John J. Brady & Co., George Couzoules & Co., John P. Hall & Co., and Regis Brothers.

The only two licensed dealers who did not apply this year were Henry J. Keyes at 511-515 Market street, and John J. Gallagher of the firm of John J. Gallagher & Co., at the corner of Lakeview avenue and Columbia street.

John P. Hall has applied for a license at the place now occupied by Gallagher & Co., while George Couzoules has applied for a license at the place conducted by Mr. Keyes.

The Joyce company this year applied for a first and fourth class common victualler and retail dealer's license and not a first and fourth class common victualler and wholesale dealer's license which it has at the present time.

As in years past, a good many of the applicants put off the filing of their papers until this morning and from the time of the opening of the office of the board of police this morning until 12 o'clock, noon, Clerk John J. Flaherty, Jr., and Inspector Frank Fox of the liquor squad were kept busy by the applicants.

The following is a list of the applicants:

1st and 4th Class—Common Victualler and Retail Dealer.

FANATIC IS HELD

He Shot Two American Women

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Afghan fanatic who shot and wounded two American women about a week ago while visiting the mosque of Omar near Jerusalem has been arrested and has confessed to having committed the assault. The American charge at Constantinople in a telegram to the state department says that the culprit is being held pending the result of the inquiries to the American women, one of whom lost an eye. The officials promise to inflict the severest punishment upon the assailant. Officials of Constantinople have called at the American embassy and expressed their regret at the occurrence.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The local council of the Knights of Columbus is to entertain the members and friends at the rooms in Associate building this evening. The national game of Forty-Fives will be the main attraction and, judging by the sentiment of interest in the last games, there will be some skilful playing in an endeavor to establish the supremacy of the winning team.

Mr. Michael Dowd will have supervision of the tournament and will arrange the schedule, placing three men on a team.

Suitable prizes will be awarded the winners, and lunch will be served at intermission, after which there will be a program of music in keeping with the occasion.

LOWELL MEN

AT THE MEETING OF THE ARK-WRIGHT CLUB

Several Lowell mill men were present at the monthly lunch of the Arkwright club at Young's hotel, Boston, yesterday afternoon, at which the opportunities offered manufacturers by the savings bank life insurance scheme were presented by Harry W. Kimball, the newly elected field secretary of the Massachusetts Savings Insurance league. Mr. Kimball, who until recently was minister of the Union Congregational church at South Weymouth, made a strong plea for wage earners' insurance at cost as one means of reducing the cost of living and thus improving the welfare of the employees. Great interest was shown. Half an hour or more of questioning the speaker followed the formal address.

The Gratian Literary Institute held a social and dance at Associate hall last night, which was attended by a crowd of fair size. The evening's program consisted of a dance order of 20 numbers. Kittredge's orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Today at the Opera House there will be an entire change of program, both of vaudeville and pictures. Commencing with this afternoon and for the remainder of the week the bill will include the Aerial Ballets, who present an act that is sensational and full of novel features. The Merit Sisters, clever singing and dancing soubrettes, with a new repertoire of songs, and Fritzkow and Blanchard, a duo of comedians, who also sing and dance well. There will also be an entire change of pictures today and a series of the latest prints of the principal manufacturers will be seen, among which will be seen a number of comedy subjects. The pictures shown at the Opera House are always of the latest and can be depended on to be devoid of all objectionable features. Performances are given daily, both afternoon and evening, running continuously from 2 to 5 each afternoon and with two full shows at night, starting at 7 and about 8.30. Saturday afternoon two full shows are given the same as at night, commencing at 1.30 and 3.15. There will be a concert Sunday afternoon and evening with an entire change of pictures and a new musical program. The prices Sunday are five and ten cents.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today a special musical program in keeping with the day will be offered at the Theatre Voyons. Several of the best of Irish songs will be sung and other features introduced. The feature picture, "The Fence on the Bar Z Ranch," is a very good picture of western life, in which the love affair of two young people is the means of settling an old feud over a boundary line between adjoining ranches. It calls for several very realistic outdoor scenes, and the acting is fine. "The Robber Baron" tells a story of the olden days in a manner so clear that it holds the interest from start to finish. There are other dramatic subjects on the bill and the comedy portion will be unusually funny.

There are 3 Features in Crawford Ranges

which make them superior to any others

1. The Single Damper
2. The Oven heated by cup-joint flues
3. The Two Hods in the base

Either of these features is worth the price of the range. The Single Damper is the greatest help in cooking ever invented. One motion—push the knob to "kindle," "bake" or "check"—the range does the rest.

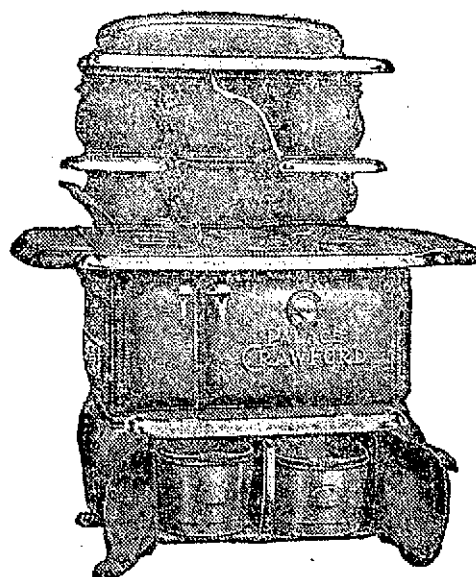

The Oven is heated by the cup-joint flues all over alike; no "cold corners," no "scorching spots." Quickest and surest baker.

The Two Hods in the base (patented) is a wonderful trouble-saving feature. The ashes fall through a chute into a Hod which is easy to empty. The Coal Hod is beside it.

Gas Ovens and Broilers for end or above range if desired.

Ask the Crawford agent to show you and write us for circular.

STYLE SHOW

FRIDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING

The style at our store each season, Spring or Fall, is an authoritative demonstration of everything that is correct from a fashion point of view, in women's and children's wear. The event this season will be of extreme importance to women who desire to be posted on Spring and Summer fashions, as the display will be the most elaborate we've ever made. The Spring air will be visible everywhere, and it will prove decidedly interesting to study the strikingly handsome and becoming fashions IN WOMEN'S ARTISTIC CLOTHES AND MILLINERY.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

"Uncle Lem's Dilemma," a little one act play, dealing with a farmer who is in the midst of his second love affair, will prove fetching to audiences at Hathaway's theatre this week. The little play isn't a bit like all the other rural pieces seen here, and the comedy element is uppermost in it. Henry Horton, a good actor, is cast in the part of kind hearted "Uncle Lem," who had to connive pretty hard in order to get the "widow's cash."

The Three Vagrants constitute a thoroughly good musical team, one of the best seen here in a long time. The men are Italians, with all of the music in their hearts so peculiar to their race. Karl and Harry Jackson are featured in the spectacular story of the sea called "Cupid's Voyage." It's full of comedy and unusual episodes. Other acts on the bill are: Linton and Lawrence, in "The Piano Store;" Granville and Rogers, singers and dancers; W. H. Galloway, comic artist of Puck; Van Horon, the mad magician, and the Mathascope.

Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week, with special seats at the matinees for women.

The theatre will be closed Holy Week, but it will reopen for the remainder of the season Easter Monday.

MATHEWS' MOVING PICTURES

The Indian Scout's Vengeance will be one of the interesting pictures to be shown at the Mathews tonight, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee. The picture will be one of those dealing with the western plains and is full of excitement all the way through. There will also be a feature picture of high standard well staged and finely acted.

Two other reels will be comedy laugh makers, and just what the doctor ordered as a sure cure for the blues.

A set of interesting travelogues and two beautiful illustrated songs complete the bill for five cents.

STAR THEATRE

St. Patrick's day was observed at the Star theatre this afternoon by a complete change of vaudeville, motion pictures and illustrated songs. The first 300 patrons to enter the theatre this afternoon were given St. Patrick's day souvenirs. The show is a strong one and well worth the admission of five cents, which includes a seat.

Y. M. C. I., Lincoln hall, tonight.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Today a first class bill will be presented at the Academy of Music, including Hammond & Forster, the laughsmiths, in a melange of humorosities, introducing their original Italian song, "Jim-du-Jeff," and Miss Dorothy Hall, a sprightly singing comedienne. Dan McCaffrey will sing "The Hat My Father Wore" in a manner that will warm the cockles of all true Irish hearts. Entirely new pictures will be shown, including a biograph. Admission, 5 and 10 cents.

THE ALDERMEN TO BE COMMENDED.

The board of aldermen showed good judgment at their last meeting in adopting the smoke nuisance resolution offered by Alderman Brennan. Legal authority is required to stop some of the worst abuses in the line of the smoke nuisance; but there is no intention on the part of anybody to harass the manufacturing companies or compel them to make radical changes in their boilers.

The adoption of the smoke nuisance act will cause the manufacturers to be more careful and, therefore, in most cases, to abate the nuisance without any change in the construction of boilers.

Of course to suppress the smoke nuisance completely some special mechanism will be necessary in the worst cases such as has been adopted by the Lowell Electric Light company. The required changes can be introduced gradually so that in time the city will be entirely free from the smoke nuisance which has become so annoying and so detrimental to the health of the city and, we might say, to the appearance of the buildings, because under present conditions in some localities it is of little use to paint houses as the paint will become dingy from soot in a very short time.

THE HOPEFUL OUTLOOK FOR IRELAND.

This is the day on which the Irish people at home and abroad revert to their national apostle, St. Patrick, and while rejoicing over his glorious work they turn a longing eye to the future in their yearning for the day when the Sunburst of Freedom will dawn upon the green hills of Ireland. Not in the past hundred years have the prospects for justice, prosperity, peace and happiness for Ireland been more hopeful than at the present moment.

In pursuance of the policy of peaceful agitation laid down by O'Connell, the great emancipator, Ireland for the last twenty-five years has been steadily marching towards legislative independence. The various steps of her progress in that direction are numerous, but the principal has been the abolition of the landlord system, that curse of the Irish nation, that Nemesis of the Irish race in exile.

Ever since the great famine of 1847, the Irish exiles were obliged to send money home to pay the rack rents of the landlords in order to save aged parents or other relatives from the poor house. But now that by the land act of 1903 and the final act of 1909, the land will be entirely restored to the people from whose fathers it was stolen centuries ago, the exiles have been relieved of that tribute to the support of a system that, according to a French writer, "should be written in blood and registered only in hell."

Thanks to the grand work of the Irish parliamentary party under their able and astute leader, Hon. John E. Redmond, that system has been practically abolished and the remnant of the people who do not already own their farms will be enabled to purchase them at annual instalments far below the rental fixed by the landlords.

Under the county councils act the people have considerable control over local affairs, a much needed relief from the system of red tape by which Dublin castle undertook to decide everything in its own way, generally in opposition to the wishes of the people.

Thanks again to the parliamentary party, the aged people of Ireland have pensions which not a considerable amount annually, and this with the expropriation of landlords and the vast improvements in the condition of the laborers, has brought Ireland to a state of comparative prosperity ahead of any that existed since the days of Gratian's parliament. The system of education has also been improved through the efforts of the parliamentary party and the grant of a liberal endowment to a great Irish university will give a grand impetus to the revival of Irish literature and may in time bring about a state of educational advancement rivaling the golden era when Ireland was known as "the island of saints and of scholars."

The settlement of the land question has cleared the way for home rule, and today the Irish party holds the balance of power in the British parliament so that Mr. Redmond can overthrow the ministry whenever he sees fit. But he will take care not to do so while the government seems disposed to carry out its pledges to curtail the veto power of the house of lords and subsequently to introduce a home rule measure on the lines of the Gladstone bill. Should the present ministry be defeated it is not likely that the Tories will be returned to power with a large majority, for their main issue is tariff protection which is not popular with the people. Hence, in the next parliament, as well as in this, the Irish party is likely to hold a commanding position.

Such a situation is naturally very aggravating to both parties in England, and it is calculated to make them wish that the ever-burning Irish question was settled for all time.

That is the feeling that Mr. Redmond and his galaxy of able parliamentarians have been laboring to increase. The justice of Ireland's demand for home rule has been acknowledged again and again by the British liberals, and nothing but the veto of the lords has kept Ireland from having home rule over twenty years ago.

The one regrettable feature in connection with Ireland's vision of hope today is, that there should be even a sign of faction at home and that a section of the Irish exiles abroad still cling to the delusion of physical force and against the inexorable logic of visible facts and indisputable results, they still claim that "nothing can ever be gained by parliamentary agitation."

Ireland cannot fight England on the field of battle, but the Irish party in parliament has demonstrated again and again its ability to wring concessions from England, its ability to vanquish British statesmen in debate, and to make and unmake British ministries.

Parnell was acknowledged to be a great leader, but in many of the chief essentials of the true leader and statesman, he was not the peer of the present Irish leader, John E. Redmond.

Home rule may not come for a year or two, but it cannot be long delayed; and in spite of all the pessimists may say, it is as certain as any future event can be, so that the day is not far off when, except in the matter of complete separation from England, Ireland will be mistress of her own destinies.

SEEN AND HEARD

Wonder if it makes automobilists envious to see the police clear the way for the auto fire patrol?

Miss Reppiler divides women into two classes—the rabbits and the ferrets, and just for that a paragraph of her own sex calls her a pussy-cat. Still these women think they should vote.

"Try Tony, the Greek fruiterer," said the resourceful friend to the man with the counterfeit half dollar that he couldn't get rid of. "He's very accommodating about relieving a fellow of bad money. You won't have to buy anything either. Just tell him you want a nickel for a coffee."

The man marched up to Tony's cash register and carefully laid down the 50-cent piece. "Can you give me change for this?" he said blithely. "I want a couple of nickels for my coffee."

"Sure!" said Tony, and counted out two nickels and four dimes. The man raked in his change. Half a block away from the store he stopped to look at it. "Well, I'll be jiggered!" he said. The dimes were Canadian and the nickels were plugged.

"Library fright is an awful feeling," said the librarian. "It attacks people who go into a strange library to look around or rest for a few minutes and are told that in order to enjoy the hospitality of the reading room they will have to pay for a book and make at least a pretense of reading."

"I have had library fright twice myself. My first attack was in the Congressional library in Washington. I wanted to read there for a few minutes just to be able to say afterward that I had read there. Used as I was to handling books, I couldn't think of even the dictionary when it came to making a choice. After a few minutes of aimless floundering 'Taine's History of English Literature' came into my mind. I had no desire on earth to look at Taine's English Literature then or at any other time, but I gave you my word I couldn't think of any other book to save my life."

"Another time in a library right here in town I was stricken with a similar panic, and, after stumbling through the catalogue in a dazed sort of way I asked for 'David Copperfield'—Copperfield, mind you, that I had read forty-five times and knew by heart. A person who has never experienced library fright cannot imagine how foolish and helpless the sufferer feels."

"I thought I was pretty sharp in seeing through the methods of book agents until the other day I met a young woman who has just begun to keep a house. 'A rather good looking man clothed in black came to the door and said that he was a minister and would like to make a call. Of course I asked him to come in. It was several minutes before I found that he was trying to sell some kind of a book and that I couldn't be rude to him, he was so polite.'"

DA GREATA BASABALL

Oh, greata game oes basaball
For younga 'Merican,
But O! my frand, ces not at all
Da theeng for Daggonan.
Oh, leas'en, please, I tul to you
About wan game we play
W'en grass ces green, an' sky ces blue
Spagatti ces holiday.

For play da ball an' see
Wheech side ces ween da champasheep
For Leaslie Bettany.
So off for polo groun' we go
Weech basaball an' hat,
An' start da greata game—but, Oh,
Spagatti ces da best for side
Dat wait for eatin' da ball!

Spagatti ninc ces first dat tried
For knock eet over wall.
An' so Spagatti com' for bat.
Aha! da greata man,
So beeg, so full 'da han' he gat
Beeg like two bonch banan.
Spagatti petch da ball, an' dere
Spagatti's bat ces swingin' way.
An' queeck da ball up cen da air
Ces fly like anythin'.

You know een dees game ces man
Dat's call da 'larfa-field'.
Wal, dees wan petch pennutit-atan'
An' like for seel'it staid.
An' dees dees da ball Spagatti heet
An' dees pass by dees way.
He don't care a teetla heet
Eef eet ces gon' all day.

Da 'centra-bella man'—you know
Dat's nex to beech—he call:
'Hil' w'ey you don'ta jompa, Joe,
But Joe he justa seetla steel
Teel ba ball ces on sight.
Dees mak' so mad da contra-fie!
He ces baygen to fight.
Den com'sa knuder man—you see,
I don'ta know dees name.

Oe how you call dees man, but he
Ces beeg man cen da game.
He ces de man dat mak' da rule
For play da greata game.
An' so he com' to dees da foot

HOUSE OF LORDS

Debate on Reform Resolutions

LONDON, March 17.—When the house of lords adjourned last night the debate on the Rosebery resolution looking to the reform of the chamber had not been concluded, but it was expected that they would be referred to committee today, without division. The speeches generally showed a strong feeling against any tampering with the hereditary principle.

Lord Curzon of Kedleston, the chief speaker yesterday, supported Lord Rosebery and favored a scheme partly elective and partly nominative, but opposed destruction of the hereditary principle, and had no sympathy for a purely elective chamber.

Lord Cromer also supported Lord Rosebery, but showed himself only a lukewarm reformer.

The Earl of Salisbury spoke strongly for the retention of the existing constitution of the house.

Parliament will rise for the Easter recess March 23.

John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish parliamentary party, speaking at Newcastle last night, predicted a general election within a month. Hence, he said, as the United States had contributed nearly three-fourths of the $50,000 which the last election cost the Irish party, he hoped their American brethren would help them in the coming election. Sir John Lubbock, who last night described Mr. Redmond as undoubtedly the ablest leader in the house of commons, not excepting Mr. Asquith, and he said that had Mr. Redmond been associated with one of the great English parties, he probably would have been premier today.

GAS EXPLODED

Manhole Covers and Street Torn Up

SOMERVILLE, March 17.—The gas which accumulated in three manholes on Highland avenue, Somerville, exploded last night and caused a great deal of excitement in the vicinity. In addition to causing considerable damage to houses nearby and to the road-bed as well.

The Cambridge gaslight company made repairs in the street earlier in the day, but the officials of that company disclaim responsibility.

The first manhole is opposite Willow avenue, the second about 100 yards west, in front of 360 Highland avenue, and the third at the corner of West street. The street was concreted a short time ago, and when the gas exploded it lifted the iron covers high in the air and raised the concrete near the manholes, throwing fragments far and wide.

Windows in the home of Mr. Fryett, 82 Willow avenue, were broken and some of the concrete fell on the bed; glass was also broken in the houses 360, 362, 370, 372 and 377 Highland avenue. The cover of the manhole at the corner of Willow avenue struck the lamp of the arc light there and shattered it, and the cover of that opposite 360 Highland avenue was hurled against the curbing and raised the sidewalk several feet.

The explosion was heard quite a distance away and alarmed the residents in the neighborhood, but nobody was hurt.

ARREST WARREN

He is Charged With Polygamy

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 17.—Franklin H. Warren, alias Gordon Hager, of Boston, was arrested here last night by Inspectors Harrah and Ahern of police headquarters on an indictment warrant issued at Boston charging him with polygamy. Warren was indicted at a special session of the grand jury, called by the district attorney at Boston Tuesday afternoon. A week ago Warren, it is alleged, stole the two children of himself and his wife from the home of Mrs. Warren's mother, Mrs. A. H. Gillis, 43 Stanton street, Dorchester. He was traced to this city but was not located until last night. Warren refused to return to Boston without extradition papers and announced he would fight the case. He will be arraigned here on a charge of being a fugitive from justice.

He also declined on advice of counsel to tell where the children were. A divorce suit instituted by Mrs. Warren is pending in the courts at Boston at present. Mrs. Warren is a sister-in-law of Walter Clarkson, the famous Harvard baseball player. The couple were married in 1903. Mrs. Warren, nee Edith M. Gillis, being prominent in Winthrop society circles.

U. S. COURTS

HAVE NO JURISDICTION OVER

TARIFF ON RAILROADS

RICHMOND, Va., March 17.—United States courts have no jurisdiction in matters pertaining to tariff on railroads and the interstate commerce commission has exclusive jurisdiction in such matters, according to the opinion of the United States circuit court of appeals, handed down yesterday by Judge Goff, Pritchard and Boyd.

The decision was reached in the case of the Tennessee Central railroad against the Southern Railway Co. in its suit to maintain the restraining order issued by Judge Waddill several weeks ago to keep the Southern railway from changing the through tariff rates between the two roads. The Tennessee Central held that a former agreement between the roads was in force and the Southern held that it changed its tariff with the permission of the interstate commerce commission.

TO SUPPORT McCALL BILL

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Perry Belmont of New York, president of the National Public Law organization, issued a statement yesterday saying that he had received from Rep. James M. Lloyd, chairman of the democratic congressional committee, assurances of full support of the McCall bill providing for the publication before election of campaign contributions and expenses. Belmont said he had not had any reply from the republican committee to a letter which he sent inquiring the republican attitude in the matter.

CALLED A "TURNCOAT"

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Such appellations as "turncoat," "betrayer of confidence," and "misstater of facts" were exchanged between ex-Gov. # DURGIN CONFESSED

That He Tried to Wrecked
B. & M. Train

WEST KENNEBUNK, Me., March 17.—Confessing that he placed pieces of iron on the rails for a considerable distance along the eastern division tracks which might have wrecked the Boston & Maine Flying Yankee passenger train which left Portland at 6 o'clock last night, had they not been removed by a man who happened to walk along the tracks some distance back of the young desperado and that he threw stones at the cars as this train passed, Enoch Durgin, an orphan, aged 18, who escaped from the Maine state school for boys Tuesday night, was captured today by Constable E. A. Littlefield.

Durgin also confessed that it was he who removed a number of switch lights on the railroad Tuesday night and placed them in the middle of the track with the red light showing to the engineers of several trains, thereby delaying traffic, and who committed two burglaries during the night, including the break at the Boston & Maine station at Old Orchard, where a number of tickets were taken.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Took Part in St. Patrick's Day Parade in Chicago

CHICAGO, March 17.—Fairly buried in green emblems, banners and bunting, Chicago today received President Taft as its guest in one of the biggest St. Patrick's day celebrations the city has ever known. From the time he stepped off his special train at the 33d street station of the Pennsylvania at 7 a. m. the president saw hardly a building or an individual that was not decorated in green.

Met at the station by a National guard regiment and a large reception committee, President Taft swung into the line of a St. Patrick's day parade which marched through Michigan avenue to the downtown district and escorted him to the Lussulo hotel.

Two receptions in the afternoon were planned to be followed at 6 p. m. by the banquet of the Irish Fellowship club. Fifty square feet of sod brought from Ireland were put in the banquet hall.

Dance at Associate hall tonight. Music, Flannagan's orchestra. Tickets 25 cents.

MORE RIOTING
THE AMERICAN LEGATION IS UNDER GUARD

BOGOTA, Colombia, Wednesday, March 16.—An attempt to renew the street railroad service today caused serious street rioting which continues as this dispatch is filed in the early evening. Thus far the mob has respected the American legation which is under police guard. All Colombians employed by the American company owning the railroad system are in serious danger.

NEW STATE ROAD

Legislative Committee Sees Proposed Site

The legislative committee on roads and bridges came up from Lawrence by trolley this morning, and had a good view of the lay out of the proposed new road from Lowell to Lawrence along the north bank of the Merrimack river.

Arriving in Merrimack square the committee was taken in automobiles to Dracut to view the Black North road. Returning to Lowell the members of the committee went to city hall to visit their former brother legislator, Mayor John P. Meehan. After spending a social hour at city hall the committee, accompanied by Mayor Meehan, went to the country club for dinner.

The committee on roads and bridges includes Senators J. H. Hibbard of Lowell, Clason Abbott of Boston, George Bunting of Methuen and Representatives I. W. Willets of Fall River, George H. Stevens of Dracut, H. J. Conant of Worcester, A. J. Borekel of Lawrence, A. H. Cushman of Provincetown, Robt. Tytus of Tiringham and Lawrence J. Dugan of Webster. Mr. Hibbard is senate chairman of the committee and Mr. Willett is house chairman. Messenger Cook had the party in tow.

One member of the committee, Robt. Tytus of Tiringham, is a millionaire two or three times over, but there isn't a more democratic fellow on the committee than the same Mr. Tytus. He has a little farm in Tiringham, about 1600 acres in all, and he is erecting a cottage there at the insignificant cost of about $500,000.

On its tour of inspection the committee was accompanied by Warren W. Fox and James McLaughlin of Dracut. The committee allowed that a road along the river bank would be a very picturesque one. "It's a delightful ride, even in the cars," said one member.

REVOLVER FIGHT

O'Brien Shot and Fatally Injured

EAST ST. LOUIS, March 17.—William O'Brien was shot and fatally wounded in a revolver fight with two policemen early today after he had shot and seriously injured three men in robbing two saloons. A dozen men chased O'Brien down the street, showering bullets on him until O'Brien encountered two policemen, who brought him down with wounds in the head and lungs.

NEGRO IN JAIL

Is Charged With Killing Strike Leader

WHEELING, W. Va., March 17.—The excitement which ran riot in Martins Ferry last night, following the announcement of the death of Solomon Edwards, the strike leader, quieted down today. Robinson, the negro woman charged with killing Edwards, is strongly guarded in the St. Clairsville, O., jail, but a lynching is not likely. The authorities anticipate no further trouble.

AFTERNOON SOCIAL CLUB

A surprise, in the form of a presentation of gifts to its president, Mrs. A. E. Brooks of 11 Normal avenue, marked the gathering of the Afternoon Social club yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Bowen in Wilder street. Mrs. Brooks, taken by surprise, expressed her appreciation in a few suitable remarks which showed how pleased she was at the thoughtful remembrance of her friends. On the afternoon's program also was a reading by Mrs. J. Walter Richardson of Stevens street, who in a well-written theme described in a brief manner the life of St. Patrick, an appropriate subject of the eve of the birthday of that saint, and which her friends listened to with great interest. Following this literary treat, music and songs were indulged in by different members and was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served by the hostess and later the gathering broke up with the understanding of meeting next at the home of Mrs. A. D. Grindle on Marginal street.

PHILADELPHIA STRIKE

Another Step Taken in Attempt to End Trouble

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—With the arrival here today of State Senator McNichol and William S. Vore, recorder of deeds of the county, the most potential leaders of the dominant political party in Philadelphia, it is expected added force will be given to the movement to bring about peace between the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company and its striking employees. Senator McNichol and Recorder Vore, as is their custom, went to Florida following the spring election on Feb. 16, several days before the strike began. Many appeals for help were sent to them in the south but whatever word they sent home was without effect. Now that they are home, however, developments are looked for. Sen. Penrose, it is said, may take a hand in peace negotiations. Leading members of the republican organization are allied with certain powerful interests in the Rapid Transit company and the attitude Sen. McNichol will assume in the trouble is awaited with interest. Sen. McNichol is credited with having brought about the end of the carmen's strike last June.

Both branches of city council will meet in regular session late this afternoon and more resolutions urging arbitration and other peace methods are expected to be presented. It is believed that if Mayor Reyburn had shown a desire to enter arbitration proceedings he would have been strongly backed up by council. The mayor has not changed his attitude, however, and reiterates he is only interested in maintaining the law.

Edward Lowber Stokes, the broker who procured the first meeting between the strike leaders and the car officials, is continuing his effort to secure some settlement of the difficulty. It is expected that he represents powerful financial interests.

The labor leaders are still at work trying to spread the general strike. President Greenwalt of the State Federation of Labor, said today that he has heard from several towns in the state that have voted to join the movement for a state-wide strike. If the carmen's strike is not soon settled.

BOY WAS RUN OVER AND KILLED BY CAR

PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—There was an absence of important developments yesterday in the strike situation here. The statement issued by the committee of 10 last night consists of a proclamation modeled after the Declaration of Independence in which the labor representatives proclaim their intention of maintaining their fight on behalf of the striking carmen.

E. E. Greenwalt, president of the State Federation of Labor returned to this city late last night and he and a number of organizers from various sections of the state were in consultation with the local strike committee. Plans for the proposed state-wide strike were discussed.

The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co. reported 1225 cars in operation yesterday, the highest number since the beginning of the strike. This had been announced as the last day on which the strikers are unbroken.

Three year old Eugene Platt was run over and killed by a trolley car in front of his home last night. The motorman was roughly handled by a crowd which collected but was rescued by the police.

Learning that the labor leaders intended turning the proposed St. Patrick's day mass for the Ancient Order of Hibernians into a labor demonstration, Archbishop Ryan said last night that the service would be postponed until April 9. The labor leaders, however, say they will not change their plans and propose to hold a meeting today in Logan square which fronts not only the cathedral, but also the residence of State Senator James P. McNichol. Mr. McNichol who has been in Florida since before the strike began is expected home today.

FUNERALS

LEVASSEUR—The funeral of Mrs. Joseph Levasseur took place yesterday morning from her home, 3 Dracut street, with solemn funeral services at St. Jean Baptiste church. Rev. Fr. Watello, Gratton and Berniche, O. M. I., officiated. The choir sang Perrault's mass with Dr. Caluso directing and A. J. Martel at the organ. The bearers were Jean Baptiste Sylva, Louis Caron, Joseph Ouellette, Emory C. Gauvin and Thomas Caron. There were many floral tributes. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, and Rev. Fr. Brullard, O. M. I., officiated at the grave. Undertaker Joseph Albert had charge.

BEAUREGARD—The funeral of Frederic Beaugard took place yesterday morning from his home, 2 McIntyre street, with funeral services at Notre Dame de Lourdes church. Rev. Fr. LaMothe, O. M. I., officiated. The bearers were Normandas Bechard, Wilfrid Chauloux, William O'Brien and John Berard. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Undertaker Amedee Archambault had charge.

BLAKE—The funeral of John Blake, who died in Somerville, but who was formerly a resident of this city, took place yesterday afternoon from the Edson cemetery chapel. Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, pastor of the First Universalist church, officiated, and there was singing of "Lead, Kindly Light," "Face to Face," and "The Christian's Goodnight" by Osmond Long and Harry Needham. The bearers were D. A. Blake, F. R. Emerson, Wyman Farrell and William Farrell. Burial was in the Edson cemetery, where the service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Mr. Fisher. Wm. H. Saunders was the undertaker in charge.

CROSSLEY—The funeral of Thomas Crossley, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Crossley, took place yesterday afternoon from the home of his parents. Burial was in the Edson cemetery, in charge of Undertaker John A. Finnegan.

TOOLIN—The funeral of Donald Vincent Toolin took place from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew Toolin, 13 Oak street, yesterday afternoon. Burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Undertaker John A. Finnegan was in charge.

CLARK—The funeral of Miss Florence Mabel Clark took place Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock from her home, 32 Oliver street. Her body was forwarded on the 8:10 o'clock to Ellensburg, N. Y., for burial. A funeral high mass was celebrated in St. Edmund's church at 9 o'clock by Fr. Ouellette. The choir was under the direction of Mrs. Breesa and rendered the Gregorian chant. The burial was in St. Edmund's cemetery. The following floral offerings were placed upon the grave: Large pillow, inscribed "Florence," from the employees of the winding room of the Lawrence Hosiery; a wreath inscribed "Cousin," from the Misses Maud and Sabre family; a wreath, Chas. Taylor, Chas. Dean and Albert Crapo; spray of pinks, inscribed "Florence," from Alice and Mabel McManus; spray of sweet peas, from Grace Spaulding; spray of pinks, Mrs. Steindorf, Alice and Blanche; spray of tulips, from Aunt Minnie; spray of sweet peas, from Aunt Belle. Besides her father and mother she left to mourn her loss one sister, Miss Ruth. C. H. Molloy & Sons had charge of the funeral.

SULLIVAN—The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Sullivan took place this morning at 8:30 from her home, 93 John street, and was very largely attended. Rev. Fr. Denis Sullivan, O. M. I., celebrated a funeral high mass in the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock. The choir, which was under the direction of Mr. Chas. P. Smith rendered the Gregorian chant. At the offertory Mrs. Manu, sang "Domine Jesu Christe" and after the elevation Mr. Ed. Jennings sang "Pie Jesu." The burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Rev. Fr. Sullivan read the prayers at the grave. The bearers were Patrick Bridges, Patrick Hayes, Patrick McRobe, Neil Russell, David Edwards and Robert Heany. Among the floral offerings were large standing cross on base inscribed "Cousin," from Mrs. Brook, Della and Mary Jordan; basket cut flowers inscribed "Nellie," from Miss Molly O'Donnell; basket of pinks, from Mrs. Patrick Langan and Miss Annie Langan; large spray, from Mrs. A. F. Jones; spray from Misses Katie and Margaret Farrell; spray with sympathy, by Agnes H. Flemmings; spray from Mrs. Blood and Mrs. Brown. C. H. Molloy & Sons had charge of the funeral.

CORRIE—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Corrie took place this morning from her home, 3 Curtis court, off Central street, at 7:30 o'clock, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. The cortege proceeded to St. Anthony's church, where at 8 o'clock a mass of requiem was celebrated by the pastor of the church, Rev. Fr. J. V. Rosa. Miss Lulu Clary presided at the organ. The bearers were Messrs. A. C. Picasso, Manuel E. Beinecourt, Antonio Dos Santos, Manuel Jeonho, Antonio Pacheco and Francisco Machado. Burial was in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery in charge of Undertaker Thos. J. McDermott.

COBURN—Daniel Merrill Coburn died about 12 o'clock last night at his home, Westland, Chelmsford. His age was 39 years. The cause of death was typhoid pneumonia, following an attack of measles. He is survived by a mother, a sister, a wife and four small children.

TALBOT—Edwin Talbot, an old resident of Lowell, and for the past five years a resident of North Chelmsford, died yesterday afternoon. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. James Riley, Isabella, and Bertha Talbot and three sons, Orrilla, Sarsfield, and Hector all of North Chelmsford, also a mother in Canada, at Chelmsford, brothers all living in Fall River. Funeral notice later.

CARMARA—Mary Carmara, aged 4 years and 6 months, died this morning at the home of her mother, Samuel and Elizabeth Carmara, 19 Richmond street. This is the second death in the family in six weeks. The parents have the sympathy of their many friends.

SULLIVAN—Joseph P. Sullivan, son of the late John D. and Mary Sullivan, died this noon at his home, 33 Butterfield street. He leaves to mourn his loss of his mother, Mary, one sister Nellie, four brothers Charles, Edmund, Frank and George. Funeral notice later.

Irish Night, Lincoln hall.

AN ASSAULT

SAID TO HAVE OCCURRED IN PULLMAN CAR

NEW YORK, March 17.—A mysterious assault and robbery in the Pullman sleeper of a New Jersey Central railroad train between here and Philadelphia was reported today to the police of Jersey City and the railroad officials. The victim was stated to be Charles L. Hill, assistant superintendent of the Philadelphia Asbestos works, who was relieved of $65 and a gold watch while asleep in his berth after being given a severe blow on the head from a blackjack. Mr. Hill, who was on his way to his home at Lancaster, Pa., said he had no recollection of what had occurred until he awoke this morning. Mr. Hill's coat from which the money and watch had been taken was found in the men's room of the car.

Fred C. Church carried the insurance on the automobile, the property of the Church street Auto Co., burned last night between Lawrence and Lowell.

A Dead Stomach

Of What Use is it to Anyone?

Thousands? yes, hundreds of thousands of people throughout America are taking the slow death treatment daily. They are murdering their own stomachs, the best friend they have, and in their sublime ignorance they think they are putting aside the laws of nature. This is no sensational statement; it is a startling fact, the truth of which any honorable physician will not deny. These thousands of people are swallowing daily huge quantities of pepsin and other strong digestors, made especially to digest the food in the stomach without any aid at all from the digestive membrane of the stomach.

In other words, they are taking from the stomach the work that nature intended it should do, and are also refusing it the only chance for exercise it has. Mi-o-na stomach tablets relieve distressed stomach in five minutes; they do more. Taken regularly for a few weeks they build up the run down stomach and make it strong enough to digest its own food. Then indigestion, belching, sour stomach and headache will go.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are sold by druggists everywhere and by Carter & Sherburne, who guarantee them. 50 cents a box.

OF

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

In connection with this opening we wish to announce that our Women's Coat and Suit Department has undergone a change of management, and on Friday we will open "A Change of Buyer's Sale" in this department. Our entire spring stock was selected by our new buyer. We want your opinion on this new buyer's showing of Spring Outer Apparel for women, small women and misses. We think it is a collection of exceptional interest and merit.

IT SHOULD INTEREST YOU. It will help you to come to Gilbride's Friday or Saturday "on suspicion," as Elbert Hubbard used to say, that you will find something to make you glad you came. The choice of the newest models from the leading manufacturers will be found here, also many exclusive designs which cannot be found elsewhere.

This occasion will be made memorable by means of the most unexampled value giving. Its occurrence on the very eve of Easter, when our suit stock is at the maximum of perfection, adds extraordinary interest to the occasion and makes it not only a grand bargain event, but an exposition of all that is newest and best in Spring Fashions at prices that will save you money—and every suit is a beauty.

We Ask You to Inspect Our Showing of

DRESS GOODS, GLOVES, INFANTS' DRESSES AND CLOAKS, SILKS, VEILS AND VEILINGS, LACES AND TRIMMINGS, LEATHER GOODS, NOVELTY NECKWEAR, BELTS, WAISTS, EMBROIDERIES, MUSLIN UNDERWEAR, LINENS, RUGS, DRAPERIES AND FLOOR COVERINGS.

$75,000 LOSS

Fire Threatened Business Section of Haverhill

HAVERHILL, March 17.—The business section of this city was threatened by a $75,000 fire at 5 o'clock this morning, the board of trade, Littlefield and Morse blocks, all wooden, on Merrimack street, being gutted. The Floyd & Taylor Clothing Co., lost about $20,000 on stock while other occupants suffered heavy damage by water and smoke. The origin of the fire is not known but is supposed to have been caused by an explosion in the basement of one of the buildings at about 5 o'clock, inmates of the lodging-house in the Abbott building reporting that they had been aroused by a concussion which jarred the building. The first alarm was sent in from box 13 and a second calling out all available apparatus in the city followed upon the arrival of Chief Gordon. The flames spread from the basement to the roof, through the walls and threatened destruction to all buildings in that vicinity until a dozen hydrant and three fire engine streams were directed against it; the fire being controlled after a two hours' fight. The damage to the property will be $10,000, while the remainder of the loss will be borne by the Floyd & Taylor concern, the Varney photograph studio, Horace Noyes, pianos and jewelry, and Laing & Besse, barbers.

TO AVERT STRIKE

Officials Trying to End Trouble

CHICAGO, March 17.—When Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the interstate commerce committee, and Dr. Charles P. Neil, commissioner of labor, arrived in the city from Washington today they were prepared to take up the matter of settling the controversy between the locomotive firemen and the western railroads. Meantime many telegrams are coming to O. L. Dickson, the general manager's representative, urging that the railroads do everything in their power to avert a strike. One telegram received by Mr. Dickson yesterday from the Commercial club of Grand Forks, N. D., insisted that a railroad strike at this time would result in thousands of acres of fruit and farm lands being left unseeded and would prove disastrous to the business interest in the west. To each telegram Mr. Dickson replied that the railroads felt confident a settlement would be reached and that there would be no interruption of traffic.

BLARNEY STONE

In Front of President Taft's Plate

CHICAGO, March 17.—When President Taft sits down tonight to the banquet to be given in his honor by the Irish Fellowship club he will occupy a chair almost as ornate as a king's throne. It is the work of 12 joiners who spent seven weeks on it under the direction of an architect.

A bit of the Blarney stone in front of his plate, two long stands of ivy from Blarney castle trailing over the netting on the table in front of him, and a large square of red from the Emerald Isle with bits of shamrock growing among the grass on display nearby will form a part of the decorations of the banquet hall.

DISCOUNT RATE

Raised by the Bank of England

LONDON, March 17.—The directors of the Bank of England at their weekly meeting today raised their rate of discount from 5 to 4 per cent. This action was caused by the continued foreign demands for gold which seriously depleted the bank's reserves. These are now nearly $25,000,000 lower than at the same time last year and prospective further withdrawals of the metal necessitated measures to increase the bank's holding.

For some time India has been drawing heavily on the available supplies of gold and considerable sums are still wanted to move the large crops. In addition to this demand there is a large number of foreign issues, including a big delivery of American bonds in exchange for British gold to be provided for. Forthcoming international monetary requirements also demand the building up of the reserves.

HOPNER CASE

WAS CONTINUED UNTIL NEXT MONDAY

No testimony was taken in the Hopner equity hearing before Charles H. Conant yesterday, the entire session being taken up with the opening. The case was adjourned until Monday at 10 when the witnesses will be heard. While the couple have not lived together as man and wife for the past 10 years, Mrs. Hopner has lived in the house with her husband and has refused to give him any money. Since the bringing of the bill in equity by Mr. Hopner his wife has brought suit for separate support.

THE PEQUOT CLUB

The Pequots held a well attended meeting Tuesday evening at their club room in the Odd Fellows building. Considerable business was transacted. The committee in charge of the coming dance reported progress. After the meeting, a musical program was carried out by the Pequot quartet, consisting of Messrs. Cassin, Poole, Shea and Lane; solo, Mr. Curtis; violin section, Mr. Hawes; cello, Mr. McQueen; piano section, P. Thacker; solo, Mr. Roberts; reading, Mr. Jellison; solo, Mr. White; Mr. John Cashman gave a very interesting talk about New York. After the meeting, refreshments were served.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Industry Council, Royal Arcanum, was held last night in Odd Fellows temple. Regent John W. Sharkey in the chair. Five new members were initiated. The council voted to accept the challenge of Highland council to whist on the evening of March 24. A committee consisting of Michael J. Sullivan, R. T. Mower and James Gorman was appointed to select the players to represent the council. It was voted by the council to hold a ladies' night on Wednesday, April 6th. Whist, dancing, and refreshments will be the order of the evening. The committee having charge of this affair will be: James W. McKenna, secretary; Thomas Moss, Paul Murray, James Boyd, Joseph Kelley, James Gorman, Michael McMullen and W. H. Stafford.

John Erikson council, Royal Arcanum, held its regular session last night, and after the meeting, arrangements were perfected for the annual Lenten dance of the council, which will be held in the Highland hall next Saturday evening. Dancing will begin at 7:30, the Rosedale orchestra furnishing the music. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Knights of Columbus Lowell council, Knights of Columbus, are to entertain their members and friends at the rooms in the Associate building this evening. The principal attraction will be the game of "Forty-fives." Michael Dowd will have supervision of the tournament and will arrange the schedule, placing three men on a team. Suitable prizes will be awarded the winners and luncheon will be served at intermission, after which there will be a program of music in keeping with the occasion.

off his energy and the disciplined fighting power of his party in the political arena. He has such control over the party that he leads that for organization and discipline and unity of purpose it has become now the admiration of all parties. And this is a great feather in Mr. Redmond's cap when one thinks of the turmoil and schism that threatened his leadership when he first took the reins after the terrible debate of committee room No. 15. Those days of dissension are happily long past, and there is hardly a man in the Irish party who cannot be trusted to follow his leader's nod. In the meantime our "Ulysses" may appear to be nodding in another sense for a time. But it is a period of repose for a stern battle in the near future. "I'll see you in the future," he said to the political world. "The turn of the political wheel may easily bring him once more near the enviable position when the nationalists hold, if not actually yet very clearly, the balance of parties. This is the dream of the Irish leader when he looks below the gangway, and he instinctively rattles his sword in its scabbard as he thinks of the great times that are coming. For a long time his parliamentary career has hardly more than begun, since he has not yet had the opportunity that fell to his predecessor of showing how he can hold the balance of political power.

REDMOND'S TRIUMPH IN PARLIAMENT

The following statement of Redmond's triumphal stand in parliament is from the Derry People of March 5: Mr. Redmond has triumphed. He has brought the cabinet to its senses. The undercurrent of Rosbury's imperialism ism, which seemed to be dominating the government for the past few weeks, has ceased flowing, and there is now reasonable ground to believe that Mr. Asquith will have the courage to carry out his Albert Hall pledges. The fate of the government hung in the balance on Monday night. The prime minister had given notice to move—"That up to the end of the year 1910 the government business shall be conducted on a footing of no confidence in the present government." Political prophets foretold a sitting. Saturday that Mr. Asquith had already made arrangements to tender his resignation to the king as he anticipated that his motion would be defeated. But the unexpected happened. In moving the motion Mr. Asquith unfolded a new line of procedure. It was to the effect that when the house reassembles on March 29th, after the Easter recess, the time until then being occupied with various financial proposals that must be passed before the close of the financial year—the recess and the "new and simple"—will be presented. The resolutions, he explained, were passed by the commonsense which he submitted to the house of lords. If the lords rejected them "the government would adopt all such measures within the constitution as seemed appropriate and adequate, and upon the successful accomplishment of the government would stake not only their fortunes but their existence as a government." The attitude of the Irish party was clearly defined by Mr. Redmond. He told the house that if the government adhered to the policy aimed at by Mr. Asquith's Albert Hall speech the Irish party would support the budget. He admitted that Mr. Asquith had made a very great advance; but if, when the veto resolutions were sent up to the lords, they were rejected or held up—what then? "Will," asked Mr. Redmond, "the prime minister go to the throne and ask for guarantees—and if they are refused, does he intend to continue to be responsible for the government of the country? Unless the Irish party heard from the prime minister on these points, he held that it would be the duty of the Irish party to vote against the government on this motion."

The premier's statement as to the future action of the government was certainly ambiguous, but Mr. Redmond's straight declaration brought a slight explanation from Mr. Lloyd George. "Under no circumstances will I pass the house of commons, but I have passed into law we shall not continue to hold office," the chancellor declared, and he further said that the government would absolutely stake its existence on the passage of the veto, and the prime minister would tender advice to the sovereign should it become necessary to do so. They were not going to touch the budget until the resolutions dealing with the house of lords had been disposed of. If these veto resolutions are rejected by the lords, it would appear that the prime minister will ask for guarantees from the king, and if his majesty refuses to give them the government will go immediately to the country on the veto question. If this should happen, the resolution could not possibly be placed sooner than the end of April. The result of the debate, and the unanimous passing of the premier's resolution—on which the Irish party decided to abstain from voting—cases for the present the political situation, and postpones until after Easter the crisis that all during last week seemed impending. That the government has been saved from defeat is due to Mr. Asquith's surrender to the policy enunciated in Dublin and steadfastly adhered to in Westminster by Mr. Redmond who, as we said last week, was supported in his attitude not only by the labor party but by the vast bulk of the liberals. His splendid and sagacious statesmanship has won the admiration of friend and foe, and the English Press of every shade of political opinion pays tribute to the masterly manner in which he has handled one of the most delicate and critical situations that has arisen in the English parliament for the last hundred years. Mr. Redmond has proven beyond any doubt the truth of his statement before the last election, that with a united party, no matter how small his numbers, he could accomplish anything that was possible of accomplishment. The marvelous success achieved since the opening of the present parliament by Ireland's representatives and their gifted leader is an object lesson for unity that when the next appeal is made to the country should result in factionalism being effectually stamped out.

BOX OF SHAMROCKS

RECEIVED FROM JOHN E. REDMOND AT SUN OFFICE

The mail this morning brought to The Sun office a little green box addressed to E. J. Gallagher, editor, and bearing on the outside certain inscriptions in Gaelic, indicating that it came from the Emerald Isle. The box contained Irish shamrocks and moss picked from the hill of Tara and sent with the compliments of Hon. John E. Redmond, the leader of the Irish party. With the shamrocks and Mr. Redmond's personal card was a neat little card with a stanza of the song entitled "The Dear Little Shamrock," printed in English on one side and in Gaelic on the opposite page. The gift was highly prized, coming as it did from the famous Irish leader, who now holds the balance of power in the British parliament and hopes in the near future to win home rule for Ireland. The verses on the shamrock are as follows:

"THE DEAR LITTLE SHAMROCK"
 "There's a dear little plant that grows in our Isle
 'Twas Saint Patrick himself sure that set it;
 And the sun on his labour with pleasure did smile.
 And with dew from his eye often wet it.
 It shines thro' the bog, thro' the brake, and the mireland,
 And he called it the dear little Shamrock of Ireland."
 The dear little Shamrock,
 The sweet little Shamrock,
 The dear little, sweet little Shamrock of Ireland.

PASTOR RESIGNS

CANTON, O., March 17.—Rev. Dr. J. Cascaell has resigned the pastorate of St. Anthony's Italian Roman Catholic church, at Canton, to investigate the Italian situation in the United States in an effort to get at the root of Italian crime, particularly black hand outrages. The task will require about four years. When the report of the findings is made to the pope, it will contain suggestions for the remedy of these conditions from a religious standpoint.
 The right Rev. Diomede Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States at Washington, has sanctioned the plan. Rev. Dr. Cascaell's appointment is also due to the apostolic delegate. He will take up his new duties Monday beginning in this diocese.

GRETNA GREEN

Couples to be married in Nashua
 NASHUA, N. H., March 17.—William H. Dickinson, an employe of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, and Miss Elizabeth P. Jordin, a nurse, were married yesterday by City Clerk Arthur L. Cyr. Both live in New Haven.
 Charles W. Coombs of Worcester and Miss Ethel J. Taylor of the same place obtained a marriage permit yesterday. Harry L. Brown and Miss Isabelle Dunn, both of Nashua, were granted a license.
 Late Tuesday City Clerk Cyr married Edward Tyacka Jr. of Medford, Mass., and Miss Margaret E. Harneth of Bath, Me., bookkeeper. The groom is 31 and the bride 17.

The most wonderful sound-reproducing instrument of the cabinet type, combining the highest results of musical genius with a masterpiece of cabinet work—

The Amberola
 The newest Edison Phonograph

The Amberola is beautifully simple in outline, exquisitely designed and comes in either mahogany or oak, to harmonize with surroundings in any home. It has drawers in the lower part for holding 100 records.

It plays both
 Edison Standard and Amberol Records

This is the Amberola's biggest advantage over all other instruments of the cabinet type—because Amberol Records play longer than any other records made, rendering the best of all kinds of music as it is meant to be played, without hurrying or omitting important parts. But the Amberola gives you much of the best music that you cannot get in any other sound reproducing instrument of the cabinet type. The price is $200. Other types of Edison Phonographs, $12.50 to $125.

Leo Slezak
 now sings for the Edison

The greatest living lyric tenor, Leo Slezak, has made ten new Grand Opera Amberol Records for the Edison Phonograph. These records include the great arias from Verdi's Otello, together with arias from other Italian Grand Opera. Slezak sings these Italian Grand Operas exclusively for the Edison Phonograph. Hear these new Slezak Records at your dealer's and be sure to see and hear the Amberola.

Edison Standard Records, 75c and $1.00
